WELCOME TO THE FRINGE!

The Winnipeg Fringe believes all participants - performers, patrons, volunteers and staff - deserve a respectful and inclusive environment in which to enjoy the festival.

We invite everyone to enjoy the range of entertainment and offer a welcoming, inclusive, safe and respectful environment for all members of our community and visitors, no matter their age, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, appearance, ethnicity, religion or any other protected characteristic as defined by provincial Human Rights law.

All concerns brought to Fringe staff will be reviewed and taken seriously. The Winnipeg Fringe has the right to ask any person who is creating an unsafe atmosphere to leave the festival.

Thank you for your support and have fun Fringing!

The Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival is proud to call Manitoba home. The Winnipeg Fringe is located on Treaty 1 territory, the lands of the Anishinaabeg, Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota and Dene peoples, and the National Homeland of the Red River Métis. We are thankful for the benefits sharing this land has afforded us, acknowledge the responsibilities of the Treaties, and embrace the opportunity to partner with Indigenous communities in the spirit of reconciliation and collaboration.

GREETINGS

Like all our Fringe fans, I can't wait for opening day of the 36th annual Winnipeg Fringe, when the Exchange District will be buzzing with thousands of festival-goers.

Seasoned Fringers will have mapped out a long list of amazing shows to see, enticed by a mix of returning favourites sharing polished offerings and drawn to first-time performers staging shows that have piqued their curiosity. It's this sense of taking a chance on a new show that is really what the Fringe is all about. This is where the next big word-of-mouth hits at the festival come from.

While putting together your list of shows, if you come across a captivating show description, a fascinating poster or a tip from another Fringer, take the leap into the unknown and support the hard-working performers who are keen to share their story with our incredible audiences.

Part of the fun of Fringing is embracing that sense of discovery and sampling a wide range of entertainment either on our indoor stages or on the Outdoor Stage in Old Market Square. So, use this program to the fullest, start making your wish list of shows and Get Curious, Get Wild and Get Fringing!

I'll see you at the festival,

Chuck McEwen

Executive Producer, Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival

Welcome to the 36th Winnipeg Fringe Festival. Royal MTC is so incredibly proud to support the many independent artists who gather in our beautiful city every year to deliver this astonishing feast of entertainment. As artists spend months and even years developing their work, the Fringe is a place where audiences can embrace both the tried and true, and new and untested work. It's part of the thrill of Fringing, and Winnipeg audiences are experts at sussing out the best shows to see from the vast array on offer. It's a high-impact sport! With Fringe guides in hand, the Exchange District and surrounding neighbourhoods are infiltrated by happy theatre goers going to and fro seeking out entertainment and frivolous fun. The energy and excitement is palpable and contagious. WE LOVE THE FRINGE!

Whether you are enjoying delicious food and captivating entertainment in Old Market Square, or rushing off to your seventh show of the day, we hope you are filled with as much joy as we are to be sharing in this fantastic gathering of theatre-makers! What Fringe does best is celebrate its community. It brings people together to laugh, cry and be inspired by storytelling.

A huge thank you to all the incredible volunteers and staff who make this Fringe run so smoothly. Our deepest gratitude also goes to Chuck and Tori for helming this wonderful festival. Finally, sincere thanks to you, our audience, for your passion and engagement with the art.

Happy Fringing, everyone!

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS!

It's a well-known fact that we couldn't run the festival without our dynamic team of volunteers. These amazing people perform a variety of roles from selling tickets and answering questions to supervising Kids Fringe and keeping Old Market Square tidy.

We're grateful to all our volunteers who generously donate hundreds of hours to create a wonderful festival experience for audiences and artists.

We extend an extra special thank you to our long-serving volunteers who have been with us for the past 25 years or more. We appreciate your time, dedication and enthusiasm!

GREETINGS

Welcome to the 2023 Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival!

The arts have the power to transform us, expand our horizons and help us to better understand the world around us. Our government is committed to helping Canadians experience the arts within their communities. This is why we are proud to support this event, which showcases our diversity through live performances that enrich and entertain.

Bursting with colourful performances, this festival invites audiences of all ages to join artists as they share their passion, talent and creativity with the world.

As Minister of Canadian Heritage, I would like to congratulate all the organizers, volunteers and performers who have worked hard to bring this year's Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival to life. Thank you for your contribution to the region's cultural landscape.

Enjoy the performances!

The Honourable Pablo Rodriguez

Minister of Canadian Heritage, Government of Canada

It is my pleasure to welcome everyone to the 2023 Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival.

Every summer, this festival hosts performers and theatre companies from around the world, showcasing comedy, drama, dance, music, improvisation and more, all presented on stages in and around the historic Exchange District.

The Fringe offers many budding actors, directors and playwrights their first opportunity to perform and to develop their artistic talents and skills. It is also a festival that welcomes experimental theatre from seasoned professionals, allowing Winnipeg audiences the chance to experience some very special performances. Everyone who has participated in the Fringe over the last 36 years has contributed to make this festival North America's second-largest Fringe Festival, and a model for changing the way we see theatre.

Congratulations to the performers, staff, volunteers and sponsors for all the work they do to make this outstanding event possible. And thank you to all the Fringers over the years who have supported this festival. I wish everyone a very successful festival.

The Honourable Obby Khan

Minister of Sport, Culture and Heritage, Government of Manitoba

On behalf of the City of Winnipeg and my Council colleagues, it is my pleasure to welcome everyone to the 36th annual Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival.

During the festival, Winnipeg's Exchange District comes alive with entertainment for all ages and tastes. Fringers can enjoy food vendors and free entertainment in Old Market Square or buy tickets to indoor shows at venues around the city.

Whether it's your first time attending or you've been purchasing Frequent Fringer Passes for years, the festival truly has something for everyone. Winnipeg's summer festivals are part of what makes our city great, and the Fringe is one of the best!

I would like to express my thanks to all the volunteers, performers and staff for making the Fringe a success since 1988. Thank you for helping make theatre inviting, accessible and fun for audiences of all ages.

Happy Fringing, everyone!

Mayor Scott Gillingham

The City of Winnipeg

The last three plus years have been challenging ones as we struggle with the fallout from the pandemic, inflation and global unrest. It's hard sometimes to remain upbeat and positive about the future. But even in these moments, I see plenty of reason to feel hopeful and excited.

If there's anything these years have taught me, it is how incredibly vital the arts are to our human psyche and well-being. Particularly in the Fringe world, where so much is about the wonderful diversity of artistic expressions and human interaction. It's a world in which we are free - and encouraged! - to 'think outside the box'; exploring different ways in which to express, share and celebrate the stories we all have in new and exciting ways. Each of us embracing what makes us unique and special while at the same time, discovering how similar we are in our shared experiences.

I want to thank you, the audience, for being willing to expand your hearts and minds to new possibilities, thoughts and ideas. For truly embracing the spirit of Fringe and coming out to see these shows. Your support means the world to these artists whose talents inspire each and every day - something I'm always in constant admiration of.

CAFF strives to give artists space in which to share their stories in a way that best showcases how they want to tell it, with 100% of the ticket price going directly back to them.

Stretch yourself. See a show you know nothing about. Bring someone along to share this experience. And tell everyone you know about the wonderful world of Fringe. It only takes a small pebble in the pond to cause a cascade of ripples with far-reaching effects. All it takes is that first step..

Happy Fringing!

Hugs,

Michele Gallant

JOIN OUR COMMUNITY OF DONORS

By gathering every July, Fringe fans create a vibrant community that brings downtown to life. We believe - and, admittedly, we're biased - that this community of theatre lovers is one of the most supportive groups you'll ever find. On top of cheering for artists and donating their time, Fringers financially support the festival, making it possible to offer accessible and affordable entertainment for everyone.

If you've contributed in the past, thank you. If you're thinking about giving for the first time, we invite you to join our family of donors. You'll enjoy special benefits while helping us return 100% of the box office revenue to the hardworking performers.

You can donate at winnipegfringe.com or by calling Patrick at 204 954 6411. Thank you!

HOW TO FRINGE

SELECT YOUR SHOWS > Use this guide or go online to read show descriptions. Performers come up with classifications to accurately represent their shows. We highly encourage patrons to carefully read the descriptions, age recommendations, warnings and accessibility options to find a show that's the best fit for you.

FRINGE WITH RESPECT > Performers put in countless hours to put on a Fringe show. Please respect the performers by following a few guidelines: arrive early (latecomers aren't permitted), refrain from taking photos or video, and remember to turn off all devices!

BUDGET-FRIENDLY FRINGING > Get more for less! We offer $10 tickets at the door for Fringers under 25 and companies may offer additional door discounts. Not enough savings? 2 for $12 performances are highlighted in yellow. New this year, we've added Pay-What-You-Can door tickets at Kids Venue, and two special Pay-What-You-Can experiences. All discounts are listed next to the show descriptions.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION > Word of mouth is a great way to hear rave reviews from fellow Fringers in Old Market Square, in the beer tent or online. Visit winnipegfringereviews.com to read reviews from fellow patrons or submit your own.

Take the conversation to social media for even more ways to connect! Be sure to tag us and use the hashtag #WPGFRINGE.

NEED HELP? > Visit one of our information centres to get help from knowledgeable and friendly volunteers. Volunteers are also located across Old Market Square, around our beverage pavilions, in front of the Royal MTC lobby and outside performance venues. Looking for information on the fly? Contact the Fringe Hotline at 204 943 7464, email info@winnipegfringe.com or visit winnipegfringe.com.

FRINGE WITH A FRIEND > Do you have a Fringe friend who is always ready to catch a show with you? At only $76 for 8 shows or $130 for 14 shows, our Frequent Fringer Passes will be your ticket to getting the full Fringe experience at a fraction of the cost. Passes are available at Advance Tickets located inside Royal MTC at 174 Market Avenue. Check out the details on page 10.

FRINGING AT OLD MARKET SQUARE

Head to the heart of the festival in Old Market Square and enjoy free music and “pass the hat” entertainment from noon to midnight daily. This historic cultural hub, located in the city’s Exchange District, is where locals and visitors gather to enjoy incredible music, talented street performers, tasty food options, beverage pavilions and merchant vendors.

Turn to the Venue Map on page 42 to get out and enjoy!

FOOD TRUCKS

Blue Haze Barbeque, Farm Dogs, India Palace Restaurant, KYU Grill, Lemon Heaven, Mini O’s Mini Donuts, Miss Christine’s Kitchen, Nucci’s Gelati, The Churro Stop, The Little Eggplant and The Meltdown.

RECHARGE AND RELAX

Fringing is a lot of work. Take a break and relax surrounded by street performers, live music, food and beverages. Old Market Square has it all!

After a long day of Fringing, nothing feels better than a cold beer, cooler or glass of wine, all available at our licensed beer gardens. Pair that with a snack from one of our diverse food vendors and you’re ready to chill!

LIVE MUSIC

Enjoy a great lineup of local bands and musicians every day, including our weekday noon-hour concert series and our featured acts at 8 & 10pm nightly:

Visit winnipegfringe.com for a complete list of musical acts and showtimes.

FEATURED STREET PERFORMERS

FLAME SYNDICATE, SARAH TEAKLE: 80'S CIRCUS SHOW, CHRIS WITHOUT THE HAT, UNDEAD NEWLYWEDS, HOOP & HAT.

VENDOR MARKET

Winnipeg isn't just full of talented performers but gifted artisans as well! Browse their wares and support local in our vendor market located in the Red River College courtyard. Some of our featured vendors are Achie Collection, Bookman, Caged Designs, Just for Fun Ceramics, Prairie Breeze Folk Arts Studio, Shirom Arts Collections, Waves & WhatKnot and Worth a Wink.

Bell MTS OUTDOOR

SUPPORT THE ENTERTAINERS

We ask you to say thanks to the talented street performers and rocking local bands on the Bell MTS Outdoor Stage. Since access to Old Market Square is free, our performers rely on donations from generous audiences like you – so make sure to give back when they pass the hat after their show!

PET POLICY

We love our furry four-legged friends, but we ask that you leave your pets at home. The festival isn't animal-friendly (hot pavement, crowded atmosphere that may overwhelm your pet), and festival-goers may not be comfortable around pets. Our goal is to keep the festival safe and comfortable for all visitors. Please note that service dogs are allowed.

WASHROOMS AND ATMS

The festival provides public washrooms in Old Market Square on King Street beside the Red River College Paterson GlobalFoods Institute. We encourage Fringers to be conscientious and use festival facilities in lieu of surrounding businesses. Since many beverage pavilions and food vendors only accept cash, ATMs are available inside the Info Tent in the Red River College courtyard, and at the beer gardens.

KIDS FRINGE

We're welcoming back our littlest Fringers to Old Market Square for FREE family-friendly fun at Kids Fringe! Join us between July 20-29, 12-3pm daily to explore curiosity and creativity with cool activities and special guests.

Fun and games can definitely be tiring so make sure to fuel up at the nearby food vendors or catch a daytime performance at The Cube.

KIDS VENUE SHOWS

Only a hop, skip and a jump away at the Forks, our Kids Venue is dedicated to bringing the magic of live performances to young audiences. Performers from across the globe have come together to share their specially crafted, family-friendly shows with you.

We're dedicated to sharing this experience with every young Fringer. This year, we've introduced Pay-What-You-Can tickets for Kids Venue, available at the door. Turn the page for the lineup of shows.

Curiosity NEW WORK!

by Emily Case &amp; Sherri Elle

It's an awfully long way from Canada to Mars.

It wouldn't seem like a robot sent to outer space years ago and a kid here on Earth would have anything in common. But when a school project designed to spark curiosity leads that kid to Curiosity, it turns out that some feelings are truly universal.

A collaborative new work by Emily Case and Sherri Elle, this play was developed with the help of Royal MTC's National Mentorship Program. Special thanks to Rick Miller for his support and encouragement throughout the process.

Generic Male: Just What We Need, Another Show About Men

by PUSH Physical Theatre (Devised by The Ensemble)

The Generic Males' multi-award-winning Off-Broadway sensation returns to the Winnipeg Fringe to give us just what we need: another goddamn show about men. It's fathers and sons, it's war and death. It takes us into the beating heart of the failing patriarchy as it descends into acrobatic absurdity.

Described by The Orlando Weekly as "Cirque du Soleil meets Samuel Beckett with a dash of Monty Python". You'll laugh out loud, you'll cry your ass off, you'll bury those feelings deep inside and never speak of them again. Ugh...men.

by nom de plume Aimee Nerve

La La Luna Sea is a murder mystery. Will Inspector Pisoni solve the murder crime? We doubt it and so will you. Under the threat of ruination, Head of Operations Rouffignac must root out the counter spy AND help solve the murder? Will he crack the case wide open with an aha moment? What happens in this teeny weeny town of Luna Sea? We'd like to know too.

Set in 1930s France and definitely NOT based on a true story. A comedy written by Aimee Nerve.

Written & Performed by Amica Hunter

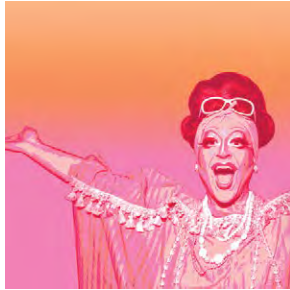

A new solo show by half of the 20-time award-winning comedy duo A Little Bit Off.

International comedian and weird little gremlin Amica Hunter (they/them) gets under your skin and crushes your funny bone in this hilarious, captivating and sometimes unsettling comedy that unveils the chaos of the natural world and the horror of living in a body.

An intimate, unpredictable parade of the body that explores chronic pain, biology and collective imagination. Part storytelling, part stand-up, part clown and 100% ORGANIC, BABY!

Drag Me to the Opera

by Steven Morton

WINNER - Critic's Pick (Hamilton Fringe 2022)

Aida Cupcake is hitting operatic highlights and high notes in this autobiographical revue about how a young tenor ended up at the Fringe in a dress. Boasting seven costume and wig changes, this story about finding your voice and following your heart shouldn't be missed!

- "A marvelous piece of stage craft, storytelling, and performance." - J. Nicholson, Hamilton ViewMag
- "This little show is dynamite" - L. Hobson, Calgary theatre critic

Dude, Where's My Karma? NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Fedor Ikelaar

Ever had a road trip go so wrong you ended up in a war? Fedor has. And it was the least of his worries.

Dutch comedian Fedor Ikelaar, loved by audiences from Kathmandu to Cape Town, tells his Forrest Gump-like true story of searching for direction, only to stumble from one bizarre adventure to the next: from unintentionally relocating to Nepal to becoming a university teacher of a language he doesn't know. Until it's all decided in Ukraine.

- "Next level comedy" - Kathmandu Times
- "Jokes that must be told" - Ukrainian TV

Good Grief NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by James Gangl

Dear Mom, I regret not telling you that 'I love you'. Or that when you made up lyrics to songs, I always laughed. Or that in you, I found a hero. Thankfully, you're not dead yet, so I'll just tell you later. Dad, on the other hand, is dead. This show is about rice crispy squares and naming the loss. I hope you like it.

- Best, James
- P.S. I tried that lentil soup recipe you shared. 5/10.
- "Hugely entertaining" - Globe & Mail
- "Some of the best writing I've seen" - CBC Manitoba

A Series of Card Tricks Done in a Row NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Brad Micholson

A really good card trick is a beautifully infuriating thing, and in A Series of Card Tricks Done in a Row, expert sleight-of-hands-man Brad Micholson performs a series of beautifully infuriating things. For his first time at the Fringe, Brad presents an intimate one-man show, entertaining his audience with nothing but a deck of cards and the very finest of trickeries.

Washed Up NEW WORK!

by Chelsey Grewar

It's martini time, girlies, and it's about to get dirty! Filthy even.

From the creators of Cob Bob and Self-Help Shelf comes a super fun fusion of one-woman play and stand-up comedy. Washed Up is an exploration of what it means to be someone who is "past their prime". Girl bossing is out, life crises are in. Let's chew on olives and difficult questions like, "This can't be it, right?" Washed Up serves waves of love, loss and loads of laughs.

A Work in Progress NEW WORK!

by Ethan Stark

A Work in Progress is an exploration of a dysfunctional and beautiful love story between two women, Emma and Mia. After months apart, they reunite one last time to relive key memories through Emma's old radio. Through these memories, they uncover the patterns of depression, perfectionism and misunderstanding that ultimately tore them apart.

Written & Performed by Corin Raymond

A memoir-o-logue. A healing spell. A stand-up, spoken-word love letter to the books we've loaned and lost, and the secret paths they travel in the world to find us.

Winner of Storytelling/Spoken Word Favourite - Victoria Fringe, 2022

Corin's first show, Bookworm, ("at once intimate, open-hearted and evangelical" - Georgia Straight) was named Pick of the Fringe in Vancouver, 2012. His follow-up, The Great Canadian Tire Money Caper, was no slouch either.

The Comaback Kid NEW WORK!

by Mike de Jong

Turning 30 is hard. Turning 30 in a coma? That's another story!

On April 3, 2015, Mike fell unconscious in his apartment. What followed was a 10-day bare-knuckle brawl back to a life that has never been the same.

Witness the true story of one man's journey from "incompatible with life" to critical care to the long road to recovery. This brand new coma-ing of age tale from Winnipeg's own Mike de Jong examines survival, the fight of man vs. mind, and sleeping your way through your late 20s.

How I Met My Neurodivergent Friend NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Adam Schwartz

Growing up, Adam Schwartz distanced himself from other people who were autistic and who he thought didn't fit in as well as he did. This show looks at the opportunities where Adam could have made some really awesome friends and chose not to. The story doesn't end there. It goes on to look at how, since having his light bulb moment, he has created Neurohilarity which has brought together neurodivergent artists to share their stories and their art, creating his own community.

Pramkicker

by Sadie Hasler

Jude just wanted a coffee but was thwarted by all the yummy mummies and their offspring in the café blocking her way to the counter, so she kicked a pram in frustration. It went down the stairs. ("Je ne regrette rien.") Now, Jude has been ordered to take anger management classes and little sister Susie tags along for fun.

Written by UK's award-winning playwright Sadie Hasler, Pramkicker is a hilarious and heartbreaking comedy about family, womanhood and the choice to become a mother.

The Dreams of Nebuchadnezzar NEW WORK!

by Jesse Krause

Haunted by a series of nightmares, we find King Nebuchadnezzar seeking a mystic to interpret his visions. Through harmonized chant, choral arias and dynamic set pieces, the show takes the audience on a journey through an apocalyptic dreamland in an attempt to simultaneously revel in, and make sense of, the absurd.

The Riel Gentlemen's Choir (from Nuit Blanche's Pollination Ceremony) appears as a thespian chorus, providing a brutalist but serene musical counterpart to the soaring vocal harmonies and uncanny instrumentation of Gerauschbiest.

Neechies

by Jo MacDonald

Neechie - Noun

A friend. A bestie. Maybe a cuuuuzzzin. For sure, someone's deadly auntie.

Four childhood friends. A reunion interrupted. Incarceration. But with the help of Jane Austen, Jane Eyre, Vera Wang, the cops (eventually) and some nosy nosy men, justice might prevail. The bow and arrow probably helped a little. Yeah.

Created by Jem Rolls

Lockdown strands me on a remote holy paradise beach in India. For two years. Among a highly eclectic mix of outsiders.

Am I dead? Is this a much better Afterlife than I in any way deserve?

And who can I say "thank you" to, for all this luck and beauty?

While a young Indian genius appoints me his guru.

Comic weirdness, human snapshots and a person-shaped hole in the fence.

Jem Rolls has received 40+ ★★★★★ reviews from Winnipeg Free Press, Edmonton Journal and many more.

by Martin Dockery

Best new play of the year! An exciting, divisive, heartfelt, ridiculous, enraging, funny and head-spinning two-person play about the spasmodic slumber and voluptuous visions of a knackered nation.

Directed by Vanessa Quesnelle, performed by Andrew Broaddus and Martin Dockery (winner of over 50 festival awards from 15 years of touring).

Previous shows by Martin Dockery: The Stakeout, The Sex Life of Butterflies, Moonlight After Midnight, and many more. Also currently at this year's Fringe: Every Good Story Ends With One.

A world premiere.

Murder... IN THE FOURTH DEGREE!!! NEW WORK!

by Sam Fergus; Story by Dylan Collette, Nic Hill, Mari Padeanu, Elena Rempel & Megan St. Hilaire

In the midst of a raging blizzard, a birthday party has gone horribly wrong. During a power outage, with the blizzard cutting off all contact to the outside world, somebody has murdered Bradd. The four surviving friends must uncover who among them is the killer. Fortunately, one of the friends just so happens to be a hard-boiled detective. Unfortunately, the murderer is still in the room and could strike again at any moment.

EVERYONE IS A SUSPECT. EVERYONE IS HORNY.

The Seat Next to the King

by Steven Elliott Jackson

It's 1964. A white man walks into a public restroom in a Washington, DC park. He's looking for sex. Just like the next man to come in, a black man. His name is Bayard Rustin, friend to Martin Luther King, Jr. and civil rights organizer of the March on Washington. The first man is Walter Jenkins, friend and top aide of President Lyndon B. Johnson.

This imagined encounter between two iconic figures of history illuminates issues of sexuality, race and masculinity.

Winner of Best Play at the 2017 Toronto Fringe.

 Conceived & Adapted by Earnest Zulia, Music & Lyrics by David Caldwell

Shoestring returns!

★★★★: Quilters/The Dining Room/Mr. Flannery's Ocean/Graceland

Meet Cinderella's pig, find that perfect tombstone and deal with the scary stuff in the sink! Based on Robert Fulghum's books, Kindergarten is a look at what is profound in everyday life from childhood whimsy to old-age wisdom. More than just a series of events, these stories and songs celebrate our very existence.

Shoestring ties it all together brilliantly to reflect a little light onto what is already inside us all! Theatrical storytelling at its best!

The Last Five Years

by Jason Robert Brown

When Jamie and Cathy met five years ago, they dreamt of following their dreams and building a beautiful life together. But as time passes, the couple's dreams drift further and further away from reality. What now?

Our story follows the relationship between budding new novelist Jamie Wellerstein and struggling actor Cathy Hiatt. Through musical storytelling, we come to understand their unique perspectives as both individuals and partners.

A five-year journey in the span of 90 minutes... come find out how it ends!

Conquest of the Air NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Wayne James

"It is possible to fly without motors, but not without knowledge."
 - Wilbur Wright

A spawn of the industrial revolution, sired in a new Gilded Age, aviation took the world by storm at the close of the 19th century. Many contributed to this achievement, few are recognized.

Weaving together personal stories with historical drama, Conquest of the Air tells the story of early aviation.

LESBIHONEST

Written & Performed by Laura Piccinin

LESBIHONEST, in its formality, is a one-hour, one-woman comedic show following a journey of "coming out's"; relaying the unravelling and rebuilding of self-identity, alongside societal shifts towards LGBTQ+ people. In reality, it's a girl with a mic and a lifetime of stories to share. It took 35 years to live, five to write and an hour to perform.

Just come. It'll be funny.

My Dad Isn't Danny DeVito
Written & Performed by Anthony DeVito

NYC comedian Anthony DeVito's father died when he was just a baby. Armed with only one photo of the two of them, Anthony created a loving, gentle and caring vision of his father - the proud new dad. His father was all of those things. He was also a made man in an organized crime family.

My Dad isn't Danny DeVito is a solo show about Anthony finding out who his father was. At 18, Anthony's mom told him the truth about his dad. Ten years later, he learned she hadn't told him everything.

Stacey-Jean At Your Side! NEW WORK!
Written & Performed by Arlene Libich

From the actress in The Days And Nights of Stacey-Jean Sandbury...Stacey-Jean returns!

Stacey-Jean is a market research call centre worker at her evening job. But during the day, aside from doing her childish crafts, she moonlights on the web as a provider of well-thought advice that comes from a good place. Her goal is to offer advice from one woman's point of view that emphasizes good mental health, self-care and healthy boundaries, as people contact her on social media. Stacey-Jean answers a sampling of her letters in front of an audience.

Tree
by Natasha Mercado & Deanna Fleysher

Tree is an immersive comedy experience that's part clown show, part game show and part philosophical discussion exploring the duality of humanity. In this hour of comedy, participation is unavoidable. Our protagonist, Tree, leads the audience, or in this case "the forest", towards what it means to be truly alive.

A lovable gaze into a spiraling staircase of existentialism with surprising, yet inevitable, turns.

Keeping The Moon NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Reba Terlson

Meet Luna, named after the Roman Goddess of the moon.

She's a Scorpio, who loves The Baby-Sitters Club, Taylor Swift and moon pies.

This is her story.

But it could also be her mother's.

As she transitions through the phases of the moon, Luna journeys to discover herself, her complicated relationship with her mother, and what she keeps hidden from others.

me: roar NEW WORK!

by Jade Janzen

Who do you see when you look in the mirror? Do we ever see who we really are when we look at our selves? Where are we when we're our truest selves?

What starts as a cabaret to understand how we build our personas, morphs into a journey into finding how we return home in our bodies. A species of clay people, a forest of self-reflection, and the most ferocious stuffed shark in the world dot the map of this queer odyssey.

Who will you see when you hear me roar?

The Murky Place NEW WORK!

By Kayla Jeanson, Oriah Wiersma & Alex Elliott

Within a sonic landscape of recorded memories, violin and Icelandic lullabies, three dancers encourage us to fathom the depths of our own psychological territories. With embodied vulnerability, each soloist scans the abyss and wonders, "What if there is nothing?"

Once scattered across Canada, these artists come together to reveal hidden interconnections, just like how light forms netlike patterns under water.

Murky, quirky and captivating, Subscatter presents three contemporary dance premieres you don't want to miss.

My Body of Work NEW WORK!
by Holly M. Brinkman

Holly M. Brinkman, co-creator of the 2019 Winnipeg Fringe smash hit Pack Animals – “a winner” (Orlando Sentinel) – and Rose Gold Burlesque bring a sexy, raw and beautifully honest new work that fuses storytelling and burlesque. The body, diet culture and a legacy of trauma from Nazi-occupied Holland.

There are some stories that can only be told with the body.

A One Human Being, Potentially Comedic Performance of Les Mis
Written & Performed by Alli Perlov

One more dawn, one more day and one more show?!

Local middle school drama teacher Alli Perlov brings back the 2018 Fringe sensation that made her a “sell out”. Playing 30 different characters in a condensed parody interpretation of the nearly three-hour epic musical Les Miserables, Perlov aims to entertain an audience that isn’t forced to be there (like her students)!

ONE NIGHT ONLY NEW WORK!
Written & Performed by Nicholas Eddie

Following a distressing call from the RCMP, one must dance, frolic and downward-dog away the existential dread... at least until morning.

Nicholas Eddie (two-time Dora Award winner) animates a darkly comic cabaret asking the ultimate question: “What the fuck?” ONE NIGHT ONLY is an electric rumination on happiness, how we get there, and what it means to keep going.

Critics rave about Nicholas Eddie:

- “Focused, nimble and endlessly watchable” – NOW Toronto
- “Nick Eddie is over six feet tall and the other actors are shorter” – Slotkin Letter

“Pour yourself a drink, put on some lipstick, and pull yourself together.” – Elizabeth Taylor

Ruby Woo? Rouge Allure? #4 Brown? Put on your best colour and enjoy a lipstick-loaded spectacular that takes a dark turn into the world of societal pressure, mental health and womanhood. Quoting famous thoughts on lipstick, three Winnipeg dance artists expertly combine text and movement in this hilariously entertaining and insightful performance.

Three lives, three centuries, one story. At what cost, success?

★★★★★ The award-winning storyteller Adam Bailey returns with “a performance both comedic and tragically relatable” - VUE, Edmonton

From the mind behind Franz Ferdinand Must Die and The Truth™, Bailey now focuses on the misadventures of French painter Henri Rousseau, whose fake-it-till-you-make-it story draws some unlikely parallels to Stephen King’s Carrie and Bailey’s own life.

The Magic of Chanelle Munroe Presents: 5 Ways to Kill a Magician NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Chanelle Munroe

Chanelle Munroe is making her debut as a solo magician at the Winnipeg Fringe with her dangerously deadly show 5 Ways to Kill a Magician.

In this show, Chanelle takes you on a journey through five different scenarios where the audience attempts to “kill” her as she escapes certain death by using various types of magic. With stunning illusion, mind-bending magic and a touch of humour, 5 Ways to Kill a Magician is a unique and thrilling experience that will leave you on the edge of your seat.

Wolfhaven Presents: King, Magician, Lover NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Matthew Evan Havens

He dreams of kings, castles and knights on epic quests. In fact, Matthew lives on a farm in a quiet part of the kingdom toiling away in the agrarian detainment of his ordinary farm-boy life.

When his teenage escape-from-the-farm plan is pre-empted by a necessary late-night evacuation of the farm, he is pulled into a globe-spanning adventure he couldn’t have imagined. With the help of friends, family and characters out of legends themselves, Matthew must face the king, warrior, magician and lover to win or lose the throne that is truly his.

Donating Sperm to My Sister's Wife
Written & Performed by Stewart Huff

Comedian and Kentucky Liberal Stewart Huff is a three-time Best Comedy Award Winner (Orlando Fringe) and winner of the Aspen Comedy Festival. In the style of Mark Twain with the bite of George Carlin, Stewart tells the hilarious story of Donating Sperm to My Sister's Wife. He actually did that. Then wrote this award-winning one-man comedy show. That really pisses off rednecks.

Eleanor's Story: Life After War

by Ingrid Garner

★★★★★ "A complete, stand-alone epic" - Fringe Feed

Ingrid Garner, 12-time award-winning creator of Eleanor's Story: An American Girl In Hitler's Germany, delivers a fascinating sequel to her grandmother's memoir. Eleanor came of age as an enemy alien in Nazi Berlin, but upon her long-awaited return home, she struggles to assimilate into peaceful American society while haunted by war trauma. It is an experience all too familiar for today's refugees from violence worldwide. The war within has just begun.

Every Good Story Ends With One

Written & Performed by Martin Dockery

The 2022 Vancouver Pick of the Fringe.

An ALL-TRUE, comedic tale about an unbelievable, mysterious romance at an Australian Fringe. A story about the nature of comedy, the delusion of love, the tunnel-vision of faith and the fabrication of storytelling itself. A funny, high-voltage performance from Martin Dockery, winner of 50 Fringe circuit awards. Writer/performer of 2022's The Sex Life of Butterflies and The Stakeout, and 2023's Long Night of the American Dream.

The Tempest

by William Shakespeare

Years ago, Prospero was usurped by his sister and banished from Milan, coming to rest on an island with his daughter. Some time later, his sister, in company with the Queen of Naples, happens to sail near the island. With a tempestuous storm, and a great deal of help from a faerie named Ariel, Prospero enacts his revenge, along with a scheme of his own. Hijinks ensue, in varying levels of drunkenness, but not all goes as planned... Or does it?

This Calls for Danger NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Brett Oddly

Fringe's most dangerous show!

After Brett Oddly's successful run of Worst Case Magic at the 2019 Fringe, he asked himself, "What would truly set me apart from the rest of Fringe?"

Watch as Brett Oddly risks life and limb in a show you will never forget. Featuring classic and modern sideshow stunts and escapes in an approachable manner, climaxing in a hanging straitjacket escape!

Brett Oddly will have you asking "HOW?" and "WHY?"

James & Jamesy: Easy as Pie

by Aaron Malkin, Alastair Knowles, Adrian Shepherd - Gawinski & David MacMurray Smith

A pie. A face. James & Jamesy attempt to fuse the two together and conquer this classic of comedy. They fail.

Diving into the depths of their psyches, they mine their memories for clues about what's holding them back.

Nashville Hurricane

by Chase Padgett & Jay Hopkins

BEST OF FEST EDMONTON 2013 & 2016

A curious tale of finger picking fury. Chase Padgett (6 Guitars, Lucky Break) brings to life a manager, a mother, a mentor and a guitar prodigy, as each shares their side of the rise, demise and resurrection of the best damn guitar player you've never heard of... the Nashville Hurricane. Filled with lots of laughs, dramatic turns and incredible guitar music.

Midnight NEW WORK!
by Meraki Theatre

What happens when a classic fairy tale meets the iconic music of TSwift? You get the brand-new parody musical Midnight. In our version (Meraki's Version), this sparkly spin-off of Cinderella is a must-see for all ages.

From the team that brought you the sold-out show Déjà Vu at the 2022 Winnipeg Fringe, we've written this show as a collective creation just for you.

PS: If you couldn't get tickets to the Eras tour and consider yourself a #Swiftie (or if you don't), don't worry, you can get tickets to THIS show.

Old God
by Gabe McKinney & Alec Jones-Trujillo

Old God is a foppish, irreverent oracle. A singer of doom and weaver of myth. A being so old, they have forgotten their own name. Exquisitely costumed and poised before a hand-painted canvas backdrop encircled by fancy golden footlights, this white-faced clown seems to have pranced out of the theatre houses of the 1800s.

Through virtuosic pantomime and improvisational feats of language, Old God rains down a frenetic hail of words and ideas that veer wildly from the absurd and scatological, to the poignant and profound.

Countdown to Babylon NEW WORK!
by Gilles Messier

March 22, 1990. Canadian ballistics expert Dr. Gerald Bull is assassinated outside his apartment in Brussels. His final, unfinished project: a gargantuan 'supergun' for Saddam Hussein's Iraq.

Is it a doomsday weapon or a peaceful satellite launcher? Was Bull a cynical merchant of death or a naive dreamer who made a deal with the devil? And what did he know that made him worth silencing?

A gripping true story from the creators of 2022's Harry S. Rintoul Award-nominated Murmurs of Earth.

Ingénue: Deanna Durbin, Judy Garland, and the Golden Age of Hollywood
Written & Performed by Melanie Gall

Melanie Gall's award-winning musical is back! Chosen as one of the top Fringe shows worldwide and mounted off-Broadway at SoHo Playhouse.

Judy is an icon, loved as Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz. But in the 1930s, Deanna, “Winnipeg’s Sweetheart”, was the bigger star. While Judy struggled for success, Deanna became the idol of millions. Ingénue tells the true tale of the lifelong friendship - and rivalry - of these teen idols of Old Hollywood.

by Melissa Major

A visual and surreal exploration of moments surrounding the Salem witch trials. Bridget Bishop was the first woman to be tried and hanged as a witch in Salem Village, Massachusetts, 1692. During this time, there was a very strong belief that true evil was present.

“They said that I’m a witch. But I never was until they said that about me.”

by Cristina Tudor

There is a word in Romanian which has no English equivalent. Basm. Roughly translated, it means "fairy tale." Ours is a tale, but with no fairies.

Immerse yourself in the mysterious world of Romanian folklore sprung from the mind of award-winning performer and playwright Cristina Tudor as she explores the memories of family, the meaning of homeland, and the fables we tell each other about ourselves and the past.

Otto & Astrid's Joint Solo Project NEW WORK!
by Die Roten Punkte

Berlin's prince and princess of art rock and Europop, Otto and Astrid, spent years arguing about which songs should appear on their much-anticipated fifth Die Roten Punkte album. Unable to come to a consensus, the dysfunctional brother/sister duo decided to tour separately. Unfortunately, nobody else wanted to play with them so they are stuck being each other's backing band in a... Joint Solo Project.

by Mike Secombe

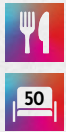

Sherman is a lazy, unmotivated slacker drifting aimlessly through his life, who has just been abducted by aliens. Sherman will be given anything he asks for to keep him happy. What could possibly go wrong?

Dark Horse Theatre presents this otherworldly comedy about a first-contact scenario gone very, very badly... for the aliens. This bit of cosmic madness is from the creative team that presented the previous Fringe hits Hamlet: Back in Black, Farrago and the consistently sold-out The Beginner's Guide To Suicide.

EVERYBODY
By Branden Jacobs-Jenkins

FINALIST FOR THE 2018 PULITZER PRIZE

This modern riff on the 15th century morality play Everyman follows Everybody as they journey through life's greatest mystery - the meaning of living.

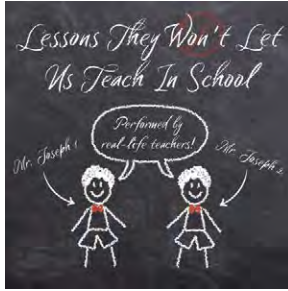

"This is theatre rather unlike anything you might have seen... unusual, unconventional and eye-opening... Everyman is no barrel of laughs, being a morality play about death. EVERYBODY tells the same tale, with equal emotional heft; but it is not only provocative and involving, it is also funny. Wildly funny, in fact."

Lessons They Won't Let Us Teach in School NEW WORK!

Written by Cuinn & Connor Joseph

Being a teacher is one of the most rewarding careers a person can have, but the job also comes with some restrictions. After all, there are some things you just can't say in a classroom. Things that are "too racy," "too real" and "will get you fired."

Watch real-life teachers and theatre professionals, Cuinn and Connor Joseph, let loose and teach you all the things they wish they could share in their classrooms. You will laugh, you will learn, and most importantly, you will not report them to their bosses.

Women
by Chiara Atik & Lousia May Alcott

Jo March really thinks she could be the voice of her generation, or at least, a voice of a generation. But being a "little woman" in 1800s New England is just so hard, you know?

Showing the world of the beloved March sisters through the lens of HBO's hit series Girls, Women is a hilarious, fast-paced contemporary spin on a timeless classic.

World's Fair 1876: The Centennial Exposition NEW WORK!

by JHG Creative

World's Fair 1876: The Centennial Exposition is a new musical comedy that follows a young Ethelbert Watts, as he and other famous inventors vie for the prestigious Ulysses S. Grant. Competing with inventors Thomas Edison, Alexander Graham Bell and Henry Heinz is no easy feat, but Watts is sure he has an invention that will blow everyone out of the water.

2019 Harry S. Rintoul Award-winning JHG Creative bring you quick-witted dialogue, absurd exaggerations and a tongue-in-cheek approach to history that is sure to make you quake in your seat.

THE HARRY S. RINTOUL MEMORIAL AWARD

The Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival has always been a welcoming and encouraging place for artists to share new work with audiences. Since 2002, the Manitoba Association of Playwrights (MAP), the centre for play development in our province, has presented an award for Best New Manitoban Play at the Winnipeg Fringe in memory and honour of Harry Rintoul, a leading Manitoba playwright and founding Artistic Director of Theatre Projects Manitoba.

The award recipients are selected by a panel of theatre professionals during the festival. The winner receives a $750 prize, and an honorable mention receives $250.

In 2022, the award was presented by Brian Drader to Sarah Flynn for Whatever Happens After?

If you'd like to support the Harry S. Rintoul Award, donations can be made through mbplays.ca, or can be sent to: Manitoba Association of Playwrights, 503-100 Arthur St., Winnipeg, MB R3B 1H3

friendzone NEW WORK!
Written & Performed by Sherri Elle

The friend zone.

A special kind of purgatory for that nice guy, whose friend just won't accept that he's perfect for her. She's out there, living her best life while he suffers the slings and arrows of outrageous and unjustified rejection.

But is it really all sunshine and roses for her?

friendzone explores the confusing, the complicated and the dark from her side of the zone...

Written and performed by Sherri Elle, dramaturgy by TJ Dawe and directed by Megan Phillips.

PAY-WHAT-YOU-CAN (PWYC) SHOWS

New this year, the Fringe has three productions that provide Fringers with the most accessible and affordable ticket price yet. AT THE DOOR tickets for these shows are PWYC but we hope everyone attending will support the artists and pay what they can afford.

P. 16 & 17..... ALL KIDS VENUE SHOWS

At The Door tickets for every performance in the Kids Venue are PWYC. Advance Tickets are $12 and just $6 for Kids 12 & Under.

P. 80..... FRINGE OPEN MIC PRESENTED BY HUNKS PRODUCTIONS

At The Door tickets for every performance are PWYC.

P. 82..... THE SHERLOCK HOLMES EXPERIENCE PRESENTED BY THE BEST MEDICINE PRODUCTIONS

Tickets for all patrons taking part in this self-guided adventure are PWYC.

COURTESY SEATING

Venues have a limited number of seats reserved for patrons with mobility challenges or who are low vision/blind, hard of hearing/Deaf or pregnant. To facilitate easy access, we ask these patrons to check in at the venue ticket table 30 minutes before showtime.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE VENUES

The ♿ icon indicates a wheelchair accessible venue. To facilitate easy access, wheelchair patrons are asked to check in at the ticket table 30 minutes before showtime.

Indoor venues are wheelchair accessible EXCEPT for venues 14, 23, 24 & 25.
