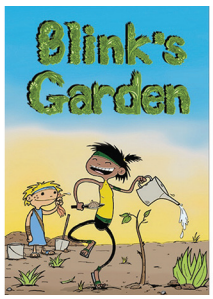
Blinks Garden
created by John Janzen

Fat Blue Productions • Winnipeg, MB
www.siloam.ca/2016/10/blinks-garden-available-for-pre-order-now



★★★★ – CBC

Blink's Garden began as a short parable, told in schools by Siloam Mission's community educator, about "seeing beauty where others can't see." It grew into a 77 stanza "musical epic kid's poem" that has been performed at the Winnipeg, Edmonton, and Toronto Fringe Festivals.

Blink and Moeh are stuck in a barren land beside a huge dividing wall. Slowly but surely, Blink and the people in her land come to see that the health of Blink's rejected garden and the health of their community is all tied together.

Crabapple Trolls
by Sue Proctor

Comedy Clownesque • Winnipeg, MB

Great for all ages, Crabapple Trolls is a delightful physical comedy about finding friendships in unlikely places. Every fall, Amanda sees bright, red crabapples turn into jars of beautiful, sweet-smelling crabapple jelly. Irresistible. But siblings can make anything difficult. To escape her family, Amanda investigates the culvert where parents never go but children can stand up and carefully make their way without being seen. The creek is full of life – water insects, tadpoles and frogs – maybe even trolls?
