:) FOOL'S GAMBIT

By Alastair Knowles, Aaron Malkin & Nayana Fielkov

:) FOOL'S GAMBIT is a high-energy improv showdown starring Aaron Malkin and Alastair Knowles (James & Jamesy) and Nayana Fielkov (Ragmop Theatre). Together, they dive headfirst into the unknown, transforming nothing into something hilarious, absurd and delightfully unpredictable. Movement, mischief and comedic risk-taking collide in a game where the only rule is to keep playing. Who wins? Who loses? Who cares? The joke is always on us.

From acclaimed international comedy veterans with over 30 Best of Fest awards and heaps of 5-star reviews.

1 Small Lie: Martin Dockery

Written & Performed by Martin Dockery

A family man robs a thief of a ton of money. Martin Dockery's edge-of-your-seat thriller, set to a propulsive soundtrack, is a knuckle-biting story of suspense, humour and horror! Like the love child of Breaking Bad, A Simple Plan and Fargo, this is a tale of small town greed, deception and an ever-expanding web of lies.

Recent shows include: TRUTH, The Stakeout, Every Good Story Ends With One and The Sex Life of Butterflies.

After August

By Eve Ross Moore

Siblings are our first friends and enemies. We laugh, we fight, but they're always there for us...until they're not. What happens when the familial bond is lost? How do we move forward without our best friends?

These questions haunt Avery after the fatal night her heart stopped, keeping her isolated and alone – but she's not alone. Her brother August remains, whether she wants him to or not.

Debuting at this year's festival, locally produced After August reminds us letting go isn't always easy – but it's necessary to let ourselves heal.

Best Friends Forever

By Kennedy Huckerby

Best Friends Forever follows the relationship between two best friends: Kaycee and Ally. Kaycee is going through a hard time in life and is struggling with her mental health. Because of this, the dynamics of Kaycee and Ally's friendship start to shift, even more so when Kaycee meets a new friend, Dee.

This brand new play explores themes of friendship, mental health, and the power in recognizing when someone - or something - is no longer good for you.

Thank you to my mentor and dramaturge, Cory Wojcik.

The Biscuiteater

Written & Performed by Jim Loucks

Drawing on his Southern childhood, Jim Loucks tells the story of a small-town policeman, based loosely on his Granddaddy, who is haunted by his shooting of a man in the line of duty. As he nears the end of his life, he seeks redemption through teaching his grandson to respect life and to respect himself.

A rollicking, passionate solo show of storytelling and music in the American South, The Biscuiteater is a powerful piece about guns, death and dignity. From the solo performer who brought you last year's Booger Red.

Bookworm

Written & Performed by Corin Raymond

Corin brought his debut Fringe show Bookworm to Winnipeg in 2012, the year he stumbled upon all you lovely weirdos. Pick of the Fringe at the 2012 Victoria and Vancouver Fringes.

"What a gift. Raymond's performance is at once intimate, openhearted, and evangelical." – The Georgia Straight

"Fathers, bring your sons. Sons, bring your fathers." – View Magazine

Bookworm is a cross-generational celebration of the power of reading aloud and of being read to. Warning: cameos by Ray Bradbury, Robert Frost, the Minotaur and Spider-Man.

BRAIN

By Blair Moro

One brain. Two sides. Left and right. Together, they should be a perfect team — but today, they're a disaster. As Left Brain fights for structure and Right Brain chases inspiration, miscommunications spiral into chaos. Memories slip, words tangle and nothing seems to work the way it should. Is it just a bad day, or something bigger?

From Blair Moro (Cabaret of Murder – 4 1/2 STARS), BRAIN is a fast, funny and wildly unpredictable comedy about the mind's greatest struggle: itself.

"Expertly directed" – A. Wade

"Brilliant" – J. Marley

Cactus

By Daniel Gilmour

When they're out of minions but a mortal needs to face their past before they die, sometimes the god of death must step in.

It's just Tom's luck to both find out he's dying and to be escorted through his regrets by a surly deity who's out of practice. At least his best friend Jackie (and her trusty cactus, Angie) are coming along as emotional support.

Written by Daniel Gilmour, who left the world's stage too soon. Cactus is a dark comedy about life, death, love and loss that we now perform in his memory.

Written & Performed by sherri elle

New boyfriend, new city, new life! The future's so bright...
But when he's suddenly a patient on the notorious 5GREEN, it's life and death. But not your life or your death... How do you make sense of that?

Cancer Wife looks past the obvious story, past the patient, outside the spotlight, where you start to feel like a secondary character in your own life. But you still have to show up for him, because you're in the middle of the biggest battle you never imagined.

CliqYou

By Maia Woods

Friendships can be complicated. Friendships with people who live thousands of miles away from you can be even more complicated. On the chatroom website CliqYou, seven internet friends experience the highs and lows typical of all friend groups – the laughter, the grudges, the crushes, the rivalries, the inside jokes and the seemingly pointless conversations – while trying to hide the most vulnerable parts of themselves behind the safety and security of the screen.

Control: A Psychological Magic Show

Written & Performed by Patrick Gregoire

Only 5% of your thoughts and actions are under your control, the rest is subconscious. Which begs the question: Are you in control of your subconscious? Or is it in control of you?

Control is a mind-bending mentalism show by Winnipeg's Patrick Gregoire (Mindreader and Supernatural) that explores the hidden powers of suggestion, influence and the subconscious mind. Watch as your thoughts are twisted, your choices are manipulated, and you're left questioning who's really in control.

Spoiler alert: your thoughts are not your own.

Show Length: 60 MINUTES

Play Type: Magic

Suggested Audience: General

Warnings: Not a typical magic show - this is a mentalism show that deals with the subconscious mind and thought control. Come for a stimulating psychological experience!

DOG

Written & Performed by Ross McMillan

DOG is a show about dogs and people, how they're similar and how they're different. In a lighthearted way, we examine how dogs evolved from wolves and why (it's rather interesting!). We also look at the emotional bond between humans and doggies, and how mysterious that bond is.

Even if you've had dogs your whole life, you'll learn things you didn't know.

There will be cuteness, there will be emotions, there will be treats. But no leg-humping.

Emergency Ops

By Hayden Maines

It's hit the fan, and it hasn't stopped spinning. When disaster strikes their community, a volunteer team of five dysfunctional civil servants are forced to work together to support their local first responders in the wake of devastation. They do this not because it is easy, but because they thought it would be.

From the company that brought you The Great Gatsby comes an original, fast-paced comedy about what ELSE can go wrong when things have gone wrong. It can't get any worse, right?

The Funny Thing about Men

Written & Performed by Mandy Williams

A witty, laugh-out-loud exploration of the dynamics between men and women in everyday life.

With "The wit of Noël Coward and the charm of Dolly Parton", Mandy guides the audience through the trials and triumphs of balancing career, love life and the unspoken "mental load" that often falls on women's shoulders. Songs like "Ain't No Thing a Woman Can't Do" and "Things I Know Against My Will" hilariously capture the essence of modern womanhood, while heartwarming moments remind us of the enduring power of love and self-discovery.

If Day

By Gilles Messier & Jess Morgan

February 1942. In the darkest depths of the Second World War, a Winnipeg businessman hatches a brilliant scheme to sell Victory Loans and supercharge the flagging Canadian war effort. The plan? Stage a fake Nazi invasion of the city. What could possibly go wrong?

From the creator of the 2024 Fringe hit Nuclear Family, If Day is an absurd and timely comedy of errors inspired by true historical events.

Life, Love, and Lack Thereof

Created by Hilary James, Brooke Hess and Emma Beech

Three contemporary dance solos that offer introspective reflections on the intricacies of self-discovery, connection, and routine.

Solitude Salsa examines the tension between loneliness and freedom, revealing our deepest desires, fears, and quirks in moments of solitude.

These Things Take Time reflects on life's gradual unfolding—connection, loss, setbacks, creating, rebuilding, and preparing a meal.

Note tracks the spatial compositions that come from moving through routines, and asks how we are connected (or not) to these repetitive motions.

The Naked Mennonite

Written & Performed by Alan Fehr

Vancouver Fringe: Best of Fest runner-up

"People keep asking me if I'm Mennonite. They have no idea how complicated that question really is." When Stephen's family moves to a small conservative town, his search for belonging pulls him closer to truths he'd rather avoid.

Part gay burlesque, part history lesson, The Naked Mennonite strips away all façade until only the bare truth is left behind.

Nervous Breakdown in G Minor

Written & Performed by Lewis Rawlinson

Lewis recounts grappling with his queerness and mental health while being raised Mormon and pursuing classical cello at a competitive conservatory. He reenacts his journey in segments with storytelling, then musically expresses them through the performance of a cello sonata.

A tumultuous piece that mirrors the progression of his story. By sharing an unfiltered range of experiences from discovery, calamity to rebirth, this show is a practice of reclaiming one's narrative to make a more personal and universal connection to music.

Neurohilarity Exposed

By Neurohilarity

We all sometimes feel exposed, whether that's as a fraud or a pretender.

The performers of the award-winning Neurohilarity show, Danielle Kayahara (Laugh Out Loud CBC), Carole Cunningham (Yuk Yuks, The Debaters), Adam Schwartz (Winnipeg Fringe) and Rollin Penner (Yuk Yuks, CBC, Rumors, Winnipeg Comedy Festival), apply a comedic spin to the experiences that make us feel insecure, stripping away the emotional weight with nitty-gritty jokes and stories that will have you laughing uproariously. Brilliantly awkward.

Never Swim Alone

By Daniel MacIvor

Two men enter a room. Two boys sit on a beach. They might be the same man, and they might have been the same boy, but it's important that you know they are not. Two men, mirror images, haunted and bound by the boys they once were, and one moment during an endless summer.

Daniel MacIvor's play is a game of one-upping, memory, nostalgia and petty rivalry that bristles with tension and then explodes. A story about the one who wins, and everyone – and everything – that gets left behind.

The Raunchy Romp with the Raging Queen

By François le Foutre

It's the gay pirate romance adventure you've always secretly (or openly) wanted!

Join the most fearsome fruit in all of France as he shares the sauciest exploits from his banned books, There's Seamen on the Poop-Deck!, and the rest of the six-part series, The Seamen Sexology. Guaranteed to offend even the sturdiest of sailors, it's the tantalizing tale everyone's talking about. (And the tale's not bad, either.)

red dirt / red storm

by Ashley Victoria Robinson

Los Angeles playwright and actor!

red dirt / red storm, written by award-winning playwright, Ashley Victoria Robinson, is a thought-provoking love story offering meta modern examination of humanity's place in the universe. Exploring themes of love, ambition, and existentialism, the play utilizes alternating past/future timeline to delve into the relationship between Sputnik (Ess, for short), the first baby born on Mars, and Clark, an aspiring engineer with a deep longing for Mars and beyond.

Until an explosion happens.

The Redemption of Heracles

Written & Performed by Hailley Rhoda

Before Disney turned him from zero to hero, before the Romans changed his name, Heracles had a different reputation. He was always a hero. The thing about heroes is they're great, but not necessarily good.

A grudge-holding goddess, madcap puppet romps and the wife whose story got erased.
The story of the 12 Labours of Heracles, told by the goddess who set them as punishment for his greatest sin. Killing his wife and children.

From the company that brought you Kore and Heart of Stone.

Reviewing The Free Press 2

By Benji Rothman

The Winnipeg Free Press has run amok, reviewing each and every Fringe show over the past two decades without consequence or recourse. Now, it's their turn... again. In this refurbished work that debuted at last year's Winnipeg Fringe, Benji Rothman once again takes the Winnipeg Free Press to task. In this (mostly) new, (hopefully) hilarious 45-minute show, Rothman dives deep into their past and exposes their faulty journalism, imbalanced reporting and, of course, embarrassing typos.

RIOT!

Written & Performed by Jeff & Ryan Gladstone

Whose side are you on?

New York City. 1849. Rival Shakespearean actors both playing Macbeth in theatres across the street from each other. What follows is the bloodiest theatre riot of all time, with over 30 deaths, the National Guard, a cannon, a dead sheep and thousands of angry rioters.

Real-life brothers Jeff and Ryan Gladstone get to the bottom of why people find it so easy to fight in this brand new Monster Theatre creation.

Seasons of Love

By Enigma Performance Company

Seasons of Love is a dance journey set to timeless music, featuring selections of Vivaldi's Four Seasons, recomposed by Max Richter. Like the turning of the year, love moves through cycles. Warmth and light, storm and stillness. It lifts us, transforms us, and leaves its mark. But nothing beautiful comes without a cost.

Through movement and dance, this performance explores the ever-shifting nature of love, where joy and sorrow are inseparable and every ending holds the promise of something new.

Tycho Freakin' Brahe!

By Joseph Aragon & Heather Madill

Inspired by online science videos, half remembered through an alcoholic haze, the creators of Bloodsuckers (4 STARS - Winnipeg Free Press) bring you the outrageous musical tale of Tycho Brahe! Follow the notorious golden-nosed astronomer as he parties like it's 1599, with duels, benders and an intoxicated moose (or elk; scholars are undecided). His assistant Kepler has his own cosmic theories and needs Tycho's star data to prove them.

Can he tame Tycho's wild ways, or will his profligacy be his undoing? The stakes are astronomical!

Wherever You May Be

By Monica Reis

Forced to flee their Mennonite village in Ukraine by Russians in 1930, Hildie and her family faced immeasurable fear and devastating loss on their journey to Canada. For 80 years, Hildie has repressed the pain of her past using sarcasm and wit. Now, on a Sunday in spring, in the personal care home where she lives, her children help Hildie confront those memories.

This award-winning dramedy resonates with world events today - immigration, annexation, war. Anyone who has been forced to flee their homeland have stories to tell. And share.

Yesterday Reimagined

By Liz Farler

When four friends get together for their weekly card game, the conversation turns to the question: if it were possible to go back in time and change one decision, do you know what decision that would be?

If you made that change and had to relive your life from that point with all your memories intact, would you do it? While discussing the possibilities, the friends are forced to take a good look at their lives and come to some startling revelations. They realize their lives are not what they thought they were - maybe it's not even reality.

Natacha Ruck from San Francisco, CA
presents

You're good for nothing... I'll milk the cow myself

Written & Performed by Natacha Ruck

France, 1981: The first socialist president is about to be elected and young Natacha is ready to implement her own political platform. But first, she has to take down the schoolyard bully, emasculate the rules of French grammar and make off with grandmother's chocolate.

If you think you know the limits of Jewish mothers, evil grandmothers and transcontinental lovers, meet Natacha Ruck's family.

This true tale of three generations of women, facing three world wars, is equal parts hilarious, shocking and zany.
