WELCOME TO THE FRINGE!

The Winnipeg Fringe believes all participants - performers, patrons, volunteers and staff - deserve a respectful and inclusive environment in which to enjoy the festival.

We invite everyone to enjoy the range of entertainment and offer a welcoming, inclusive, safe and respectful environment for all members of our community and visitors, no matter their age, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, appearance, ethnicity, religion or any other protected characteristic as defined by provincial Human Rights law.

All concerns brought to Fringe staff will be reviewed and taken seriously. The Winnipeg Fringe has the right to ask any person who is creating an unsafe atmosphere to leave the festival.

Thank you for your support and have fun Fringing!

The Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival is proud to call Manitoba home. The Winnipeg Fringe is located in Winnipeg on Treaty 1, the traditional territory of the Anishinaabeg, Inninewak, Anishinewak, Dakota Oyate and Denesuline, and the National Homeland of the Red River Métis. We are thankful for the benefits sharing this land has afforded us, acknowledge the responsibilities of the Treaties, and embrace the opportunity to partner with Indigenous communities in spirit of reconciliation and collaboration.

GREETINGS

The 38th annual Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival is here and like all our amazing Fringe fans, I can't wait to get planning my adventure.

Even though I like to check out my favourite artists, like many long-time festival goers, I really get excited about the first-time participants and the new works being presented in the festival. Part of the fun of Fringing is taking a few chances when selecting shows and sampling a wide variety of play types. This spirit of adventure inspired our theme this year and we hope you'll embrace it!

So, while you're choosing your own Fringe adventure, get out of your comfort zone and take a chance on some plays that pique your curiosity. Then see them early, so YOU can start some of that amazing Fringe buzz in the line-ups.

Get your highlighter ready and have fun Fringing!

Chuck McEwen

Executive Producer, Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival

Welcome to the 38th annual Winnipeg Fringe Festival. It's always a wonderful time at MTC as the Fringe descends upon the city. Our building has been teeming with the many staffers who have supported the festival for the past few months, but it gets even more exciting when the artists finally arrive to take the stage. Royal MTC is proud to support the independent artists who provide our fair city with such wonderful theatrical fare each year. The Fringe is a place where audiences can enjoy a wide variety of entertainment – from scoping out the best shows, or taking in some lively entertainment at Kids Fringe, to enjoying the incredible programming at Old Market Square while enjoying a cold beverage. The Fringe offers something for everyone!

The Exchange District and surrounding neighbourhoods are wonderful partners to the Fringe Festival, and we appreciate all the venues that welcome our artists and audiences, and get swept up in the excitement of it all. Winnipeg audiences are some of the best Fringe-goers in the entire circuit, and we are so proud to provide such passionate and receptive theatre lovers to our many participants. It's what truly makes our Fringe so special.

A huge thank you to our artists, from near and far, who have worked tirelessly to bring their best to this festival. A big thank you to our incredible volunteer corps who help make this event such a success year after year! Our sincere gratitude to our Fringe staff, our core administration team at MTC, and to Chuck and Tori for bringing this wonderful festival to life. But most importantly, thank you to our audience, for your deep engagement with the art, and your incredible appetite for the theatre. What Fringe does best is shine a light on what is so great about our community - we care about each other and this fine city we call home!

Happy Fringing, everyone!

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS!

Putting together a festival is an adventure and one we definitely couldn't navigate without our volunteers. These cheery and hardworking individuals do it all - over 12 long days and in every kind of weather. We're grateful to our 800 volunteers, who generously donate over 14,000 hours of their time to create a wonderful festival experience.

An extra special shoutout to the dedicated volunteers whose Fringe adventure has covered 25 years or more. We appreciate you!

Welcome to the 38th Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival!

Since its founding in 1988, this cherished event has been part of Manitoba's vibrant theatrical scene and has inspired and entertained audiences in the region by presenting a range of original, independent works. This season brings another exciting lineup that is sure to thrill theatregoers of all ages and backgrounds.

Our government is committed to helping Canadians experience the arts in all their forms. By coming together to celebrate our culture and diversity through the arts, we are helping build better, stronger communities and a more inclusive Canada. We are proud to support the Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival in creating a venue where artists are able to share their talents with appreciative audiences.

As Minister of Canadian Identity and Culture and Minister responsible for Official Languages, I would like to celebrate all the organizers, volunteers and performers who have worked hard to bring this year's Winnipeg Fringe to life. Thank you for your dedication and contribution to the region's cultural landscape.

Enjoy the shows!

The Honourable Steven Guilbeault

Minister of Canadian Identity and Culture and Minister responsible for Official Languages, Government of Canada

On behalf of myself and my colleagues at the Manitoba legislature, it is my pleasure to welcome everyone to the 2025 Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival.

As one of Manitoba's premier summer festivals, the Fringe is anticipated by thousands of eager audience members each year. For over three decades, performers and theatre companies from around the world take to stages in and around Winnipeg's historic Exchange District to showcase comedy, drama, dance, music, improvisation and more.

The Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival also holds the distinct honour of being North America's second-largest fringe festival, thanks to the support of thousands of audience members and the world-class artists who perform here. Seasoned theatre professionals bring experimental theatre for Winnipeg audiences to experience some truly unique performances. The Fringe also welcomes new and emerging actors, directors and playwrights, and gives them an opportunity to perform and develop their artistic talents in front of live audiences.

Congratulations to all the performers, staff, volunteers and sponsors for the work they do to make this outstanding event possible each and every year, and thank you to all the Fringers who have supported this festival for the past 38 years. I wish everyone a wonderful week and a very successful festival.

The Honourable Nellie Kennedy

Minister of Sport, Culture, Heritage and Tourism, Government of Manitoba

Welcome to the 38th annual Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival!

Each summer, the Fringe turns our Exchange District into something special – a place where artists take chances, audiences discover something new, and the whole neighbourhood feels like one big stage.

This festival has grown into one of the biggest and boldest of its kind in North America, but at its heart, it still feels like Winnipeg - independent, welcoming, and full of heart. It's a celebration of risk-taking, storytelling, and community.

Thank you to the performers, volunteers, organizers, and audiences who make the Fringe such a vibrant part of our city's cultural life. Enjoy the shows, support the artists, and soak up everything the festival has to offer.

See you around the Fringe!

Mayor Scott Gillingham City of Winnipeg

Welcome to Fringe!

Fringe isn't just a festival. It's a movement that champions independent artists and makes artistic expression possible. It's art for everyone, by everyone.

The Canadian Association of Fringe Festivals (CAFF) powers this movement across North America. With 32 member festivals, we create unmatched opportunities for artists to take creative risks, connect with audiences, and build sustainable careers without barriers.

Fringe is where anything is possible. Fringe is where stories spark change.

And right now, we need our artists who dare to tell bold stories, push boundaries, and imagine new possibilities more than ever. And we need audiences like you who take bold risks right alongside our artists. Because in a world that feels increasingly disconnected, Fringe is the answer.

Consider this your enthusiastic invitation to see a show (or 5! Or 10!). Support an artist. Invest in the future of Fringe. Every ticket you buy, every artist you champion, and every dollar you donate keeps this movement alive for generations to come.

Fringe is about participating in something bigger. If you want to shape the future of independent artists, please: join the movement!

Happy Fringing,

Megan Dart (she/her)

CLORARAEI COLORARAEI SQUARE

Head to the heart of the festival in Old Market Square and enjoy free music and "pass the hat" entertainment from noon to midnight daily. This historic cultural hub, located in the city's Exchange District, is where locals and visitors gather to enjoy incredible music, talented street performers, tasty food options, beverage pavilions and merchant vendors.

Turn to the Venue Map on page 42 to plan your adventure!

FOOD TRUCKS

Cochrane Creek Farm, India Palace Restaurant, KYU Grill, Lemon Heaven, Mini O's Mini Donuts, Miss Christine's Kitchen, Nucci's Gelati, Panda Tea, The Churro Stop and The Little Eggplant.

RECHARGE AND RELAX

After a long day of Fringing, there's nothing quite like the refreshing taste of a cold beer, cooler, glass of wine or Bubly at the Liquor Mart Patio and Torque Brewing Beer Tent. There will be a selection of Torque Brewing beers to tantalize your taste buds, including Blonde Ale, Torque Road Trip Hazy Pale Ale, Torque Snapback IPA, Mangoza! and Buenazo Cerveza.

To complete your experience, pair your beverage with a delicious snack from one of our diverse food vendors. Kick back, relax and let the combination of great drinks, food and entertainment help you unwind. Cheers to a delightful Fringing experience!

LIVE MUSIC

Enjoy a great lineup of local bands and musicians every day, including our weekday noon-hour concert series and our featured acts at 8 & 10pm nightly:

THE BAND AT THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA, DIRTY CATFISH BRASS BAND, DOCTOR ROCKTOPUS, THE KIM REIMER BAND, LADY MUSE & THE INSPIRATIONS, MAMA CUTSWORTH, THE MESSYTONES, THE RANGERS, THE REAL FOLK BLUES, THE REMEDIES, THOSE GUYS, TRONIC SOUNDSPACE AND MANY MORE.

Visit winnipegfringe.com for a complete list of musical acts and showtimes.

FEATURED STREET PERFORMERS

The Bell MTS Outdoor Stage will host jugglers, acrobats and other amazing acts who perform death-defying stunts or win you over with some comedy.

VENDOR MARKET

Winnipeg isn't just full of talented performers but gifted artisans as well! We will have a wide range of items available from our diverse merchant vendors including t-shirts, jewelry, tote bags, prints, books, pins, buttons, crafts, art, clothing and much more! Browse their wares and support local in our vendor market located in the Red River College courtyard. Vendors include Achie Collection, Bathala Scents and Natural Wellness, Bookman, Jay's Creative Studio, Pink Girl and Shirom Arts and Crafts. Visit winnipegfringe.com for a complete list of vendors.

SUPPORT THE ENTERTAINERS

Show your support for our talented street performers and rocking local bands on the Bell MTS Outdoor Stage. Since access to Old Market Square is free, our performers rely on donations from generous audiences like you - so make sure to give back when they pass the hat!

PET POLICY

We love our furry four-legged friends, but we ask that you leave your pets at home. The festival isn't animal-friendly (hot pavement, crowded atmosphere that may overwhelm your pet), and festivalgoers may not be comfortable around pets. Our goal is to keep the festival safe and comfortable for all visitors. Please note that service dogs are allowed.

WASHROOMS AND ATMS

The festival provides public washrooms in Old Market Square on King Street beside the Red River College Paterson GlobalFoods Institute. We encourage Fringers to be conscientious and use festival facilities in lieu of surrounding businesses. Since many beverage pavilions and food vendors only accept cash, ATMs are available inside the Info Tent in the Red River College courtyard, and at the beer gardens.

Money Fish: Balls, Balls, Balls NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Kirsten Edwards, Emily Hughes & Natalie Parkinson Dupley

The Money Fish, a zany, acrobatic trio of fish-like synchronized swimmers, have been thrust on stage to try and figure out what to do with all these balls.

Set to an array of the most recognizable classical music, the Money Fish parody and pay tribute to ballet, opera, contemporary dance, acrobatics, silent film and anything else that might take itself too seriously.

Rewritten NEW WORK! By Meraki Theatre

Once upon a time... things didn't go quite as planned.

Rewritten follows a group of fairy tale characters as they break free from their stories and set out to change their fates together. They're ready to flip the script and find their own happy endings. This original Meraki Theatre musical adventure combines laughter, heart and a little bit of magic to remind us that we're all the authors of our own stories. Rewritten is a feel-good tale about courage, friendship, and the power of rewriting your own story.

Seasons of Love NEW WORK!

By Enigma Performance Company

Seasons of Love is a dance journey set to timeless music, featuring selections of Vivaldi's Four Seasons, recomposed by Max Richter. Like the turning of the year, love moves through cycles.

Warmth and light, storm and stillness. It lifts us, transforms us, and leaves its mark. But nothing beautiful comes without a cost.

Through movement and dance, this performance explores the ever-shifting nature of love, where joy and sorrow are inseparable and every ending holds the promise of something new.

The Tempestuous: A Shrew'd New Comedy By Will Shakespeare & Penny Ashton

Award-winning Kiwi Penny Ashton (Promise & Promiscuity) is frolicking back to Winnipegshire in an Elizabethan tale of magic, meddling and puffed bull's pizzles that "Shakespeare himself would be proud of" (Theatre Scenes).

King Enzo is dead. Now Princess Rosa, a stroppy spinster, must navigate the tempestuous waters of belching Stepfathers, lusty suitors, popping codpieces and menopausal witches to face her destiny.

When four friends get together for their weekly card game, the conversation turns to the question: if it were possible to go back in time and change one decision, do you know what decision that would be? If you made that change and had to relive your life from that point with all your memories intact, would you do it?

While discussing the possibilities, the friends are forced to take a good look at their lives and come to some startling revelations. They realize their lives are not what they thought they were – maybe it's not even reality.

Nervous Breakdown in G Minor

Written & Performed by Lewis Rawlinson

Written & Performed by Zac Williams

This critically acclaimed Edinburgh Fringe hit is the loveable and unforgettable story of Jack, a kindergarten teacher in therapy with a broken heart after his boyfriend leaves him for the man from their threesome.

- ★★★★ "Genuinely very funny" Gay Times
- ★★★★ "A gifted storyteller" The Reviews Hub
- ★★★★ "Perfect delivery" The List

the progression of his story.

Jack Goes to Therapy: A (Somewhat) Romantic Comedy

★★★★ "A tearjerker in both senses" - West End Best Friend

Lewis recounts grappling with his queerness and mental health, while being raised Mormon and pursuing classical cello at a competitive conservatory. He reenacts his journey in segments with storytelling, then musically expresses them through the performance of a cello sonata. A tumultuous piece that mirrors

By sharing an unfiltered range of experiences from discovery, calamity to rebirth, this show is a practice of reclaiming one's narrative to make a more personal and universal connection to music.

Papa Ubu NEW WORK! By Eric Bossé

Witness the magnanimous rise and fall and exile of his own ubunkular presence, the one, the only, Papa Ubu!

Joined by his sex-starved wifey Mama Ubu, pet fish and loyal Lieutenant Bordure, watch as they conquer the crown, pillage and have a cup of tea! All the while spreading bloodshed chaos wherever they roam.

Come see the violence inherent in the system. Come back to majestic absurdity!

Adapted by Eric Bossé from Alfred Jarry's seminal French works.

SHIT: The Musical NEW WORK!

Written & Performed by Donnie Baxter

Associate professor Doctor Eaton Fartmore, a disgruntled biology instructor in a small university and self-described expert in shit, is bullied into teaching a last-minute semantics class with hilarious results.

In a lecture filled with songs and stories, the vengeful professor makes sure the class will never think of semantics - or shit - the same way again.

The Show Must Go On! NEW WORK! By Gabriel Krawec & Emma Stevens

The director is furious, the play is cursed and the incompetent detective appears to be from the 1940s and won't stop monologuing. Can this green room full of bickering high schoolers put their differences aside and work together to find out who, or what, is sabotaging their production of Macbeth?

The Show Must Go On! is a fast-paced, farcical love letter to the personalities, conflicts and chaos of high school theatre!

Wherever You May Be By Monica Reis

Forced to flee their Mennonite village in Ukraine by Russians in 1930, Hildie and her family faced immeasurable fear and devastating loss on their journey to Canada. For 80 years, Hildie has repressed the pain of her past using sarcasm and wit. Now, on a Sunday in spring, in the personal care home where she lives, her children help Hildie confront those memories.

This award-winning dramedy resonates with world events today - immigration, annexation, war. Anyone who has been forced to flee their homeland has stories to tell. And share.

France, 1981: The first socialist president is about to be elected and young Natacha is ready to implement her own political platform. But first, she has to take down the schoolyard bully, emasculate the rules of French grammar and make off with grandmother's chocolate.

If you think you know the limits of Jewish mothers, evil grandmothers and transcontinental lovers, meet Natacha Ruck's family. This true tale of three generations of women, facing three world wars, is equal parts hilarious, shocking and zany.

The Biscuiteater Written & Performed by Jim Loucks

Drag Me to the Opera Written & Performed by Steven J Morton

Drawing on his Southern childhood, Jim Loucks tells the story of a small-town policeman based loosely on his Granddaddy, who is haunted by his shooting of a man in the line of duty. As he nears the end of his life, he seeks redemption through teaching his grandson to respect life and to respect himself.

A rollicking, passionate solo show of storytelling and music in the American South, The Biscuiteater is a powerful piece about guns, death and dignity.

From the solo performer who brought you last year's Booger Red.

52 Stories Written & Performed by Dave Morris

Fresh off its award-winning, sold-out run at the Victoria Fringe, 52 Stories is a storytelling show that takes place inside the memory palace of Pick-of-the-Fringe award-winning improviser and storyteller Dave Morris.

One part memorization trick, one part storytelling show. Come and enjoy some heartwarming and heartbreaking stories of family, friends, love, loss, and of course, memory.

What are the things you remember? What are the things you never want to forget?

★★★★ "Dave Morris is a master of his art." - Times Columnist

The Apricot Tree NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Chance Sabados

Memories. Some memories just stick with you. When your life flashes before your eyes, when all you have left is your memories, what will you have? Will your last breath be a scream or a whisper? Explore what it means to have lived a life worth living. Walk with a stranger into that great, inevitable unknown.

This original work by four hearty Manitoban artists is a call for hope, a hope that each of us might one day greet death as a friend.

Multiple Neurosis NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Karin Fekko

Oversharer NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Kristen Einarson

When comedian and improviser Kristen Einarson was 28, her TikTok algorithm tried to convince her she had ADHD. She brushed it off until a year later, when a real doctor told her she passed her assessment with flying colours and had been misdiagnosed her whole life.

NOMINATED: BEST STORYTELLING AND BEST SCRIPT -

Acclaimed storyteller Keith Serry (PBS Stories From the Stage) brings a hilarious and heartbreaking road trip from youth to old manhood. A search for guidance in a world where being "a good man" and being "the man" are two very different things. "Incredibly funny and profoundly vulnerable. A work of art." - Nisha Coleman (Writer/performer of Cornichon and

- Tara McGowan-Ross (Forget the Box)

Alright: Solving the Problem of Living)

"Delightful...tender and moving."

Join Kristen (CBC's Laugh Out Loud, Just For Laughs Originals, Club Soda Improv) as she takes us through what it was like to find out something huge about herself right before she turned 30. Equal parts funny and heartfelt, Kristen overshares it all.

After August NEW WORK! By Eve Ross Moore

Alana and Kaibo NEW WORK! By Kathleen Henry

Siblings are our first friends and enemies. We laugh, we fight, but they're always there for us...until they're not. What happens when the familial bond is lost? How do we move forward without our best friends?

These questions haunt Avery after the fatal night her heart stopped, keeping her isolated and alone - but she's not alone. Her brother August remains, whether she wants him to or not.

Debuting at this year's festival, locally produced After August reminds us letting go isn't always easy - but it's necessary to let ourselves heal.

The Best (?) Non-Denominational Holiday Concert Ever! NEW WORK! By Christian M. Leeson & Cyan Gargol

Guy DeSalle, a disenchanted and overworked middle years math teacher, is unexpectedly asked to direct the local elementary school Christmas concert. Having little experience with 11-yearolds and no real attachment to Christmas, what could go wrong?

Part satire on the tribulations of dealing with a meddling, bureaucratic administration, part A Charlie Brown Christmas, this show will appeal to the young, the old, the young at heart, and anyone who has experienced being in (or has had to endure) a classic elementary school winter concert!

Cactus NEW WORK! By Daniel Gilmour

When they're out of minions but a mortal needs to face their past before they die, sometimes the god of death must step in.

It's just Tom's luck to both find out he's dying and to be escorted through his regrets by a surly deity who's out of practice. At least his best friend Jackie (and her trusty cactus, Angie) are coming along as emotional support.

Written by Daniel Gilmour, who left the world's stage too soon. Cactus is a dark comedy about life, death, love and loss that we now perform in his memory.

Gender Play, or what you Will Co-created by Will Wilhelm & Erin Murray

If Day NEW WORK! By Gilles Messier & Jess Morgan

February 1942. In the darkest depths of the Second World War, a Winnipeg businessman hatches a brilliant scheme to sell Victory Loans and supercharge the flagging Canadian war effort. The plan? Stage a fake Nazi invasion of the city. What could possibly go wrong?

Will is a trans actor seeking purpose when they somehow summon the spirit of Will Shakespeare. Instant besties, Will & Will reclaim the Bard's old plays in their original homoerotic, cross-dressing, genderfluid glory. Now, you are invited to an impromptu party celebrating this new friendship. But to meet the guest of honour,

Gender Play, or what you Will promises a mystical journey of

The Singing Psychic Game Show

Written & Performed by Marysia Trembecka

Italian Monday Improv is finally back for Winnipeg Fringe! And there's more! Comedy legend Kevin Alexandar returns!

Murmurs of his return weren't just idle gossip after all. It's been nine years since Kevin last haunted the stage. Nevertheless, a 'disappearance' won't stop him now.

Hungry for chaos? We've got plenty to keep you fed. Expect the unexpected - no soul leaves the same.

Lob your wildest suggestions and brace yourself.

BRAIN NEW WORK! By Blair Moro

Brain Machine Written & Performed by Andrew Bailey

One brain. Two sides. Left and right. Together, they should be a perfect team - but today, they're a disaster. As Left Brain fights for structure and Right Brain chases inspiration, miscommunications spiral into chaos. Memories slip, words tangle and nothing seems to work the way it should. Is it just a bad day, or something bigger?

Chuckle Hunters Live NEW WORK! By Chuckle Hunters

Join Brody Sjodin, Charles Hunter, Cora Pare, Kathryn Derksen and Quinton Vander Aa as they make up a narrative story on the spot based on audience suggestions!

These five performers have been hard at work studying the subtle arts of maintaining an accent, prolonged eye contact and male-onmale lip interactions. These are just some of the many experiences that may or may not happen at each one-of-a-kind show!

DOG is a show about dogs and people, how they're similar and how they're different. In a lighthearted way, we examine how dogs evolved from wolves and why (it's rather interesting!). We also look at the emotional bond between humans and doggies, and how mysterious that bond is. Even if you've had dogs your whole life, you'll learn things you didn't know.

There will be cuteness, there will be emotions, there will be treats. But no leg-humping.

A witty, laugh-out-loud exploration of the dynamics between men and women in everyday life.

With "The wit of Noël Coward and the charm of Dolly Parton". Mandy guides the audience through the trials and triumphs of balancing career, love life and the unspoken "mental load" that often falls on women's shoulders. Songs like "Ain't No Thing a Woman Can't Do" and "Things I Know Against My Will" hilariously capture the essence of modern womanhood, while heartwarming moments remind us of the enduring power of love and self-discovery.

The Naked Mennonite NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Alan Fehr

Shakespeare: Say It! NEW WORK!

"What's a Ha-mong?" Jasmine Vang is teaching Hmong class and finds herself questioning what it means to be Hmong American.

This solo play investigates her dual identities through her personal experience as a Hmong teacher. As she shuffles through her lesson plans, you will peek into her history and peer into her broken identity.

Join her journey as she fights her way through a disarray of identities, trying to find her truest self within them.

Small Fish NEW WORK! By Glenys Marshall & Maggie Harder

Lasers! Horses! Dolly Parton? Small Fish is like if your Saturday morning cartoons were acted out by two people at a house party who are WAY too comfortable with each other.

Glenys Marshall (she/her) and Maggie Harder (they/them) have combined their love of sketch, improv, stand-up and music to create a comedy revue filled to the gills with silliness. The duo has headlined at the Great Canadian Theatre Company, Capital Pride Festival and the Toronto Sketch Comedy Festival.

PAUL STRICKLAND • ERIKA MACDONALD in a NEW "LIE-LARIOUS" MUSICAL COMEDY SHOW VENUE 11: RED RIVER COLLEGE

20 TIME BEST-Of-FEST WINNERS

Alright: Solving the Problem of Living Written & Performed by Nisha Coleman

Acclaimed storyteller Nisha Coleman spins a yarn of nail-biting, heart-wrenching, darkly comedic adventures as she gets locked in a Madrid train station trying to rescue a cat; is rescued by the Princess Bride's Westley while busking in Halifax; and comes face-to-face with a suicidal teenager in Montreal.

Through these true-life stories, Coleman delves boldly into themes of mental illness and suicide, and attempts to "solve the problem of living" by learning to be alright with being alive.

Late-in-Life Lesbian NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Shane Thevenot

Late-in-Life Lesbian, directed by Lucy Gervais, is the awardnominated coming-out story of a comedian who gave up everything to live their best gay life. Shane Thevenot is a lesbian who went through a 32-year-long straight phase that included such terrifying events as growing up in the woods, surviving the pandemic in Montreal and U-hauling with a man. It is a hilarious, fresh take on the late-bloomer lesbian and non-binary experience that will leave audiences feeling like it's never too late to be who they were always meant to be.

The Man Who Couldn't Die NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Leigh-Anne Kehler

The Man Who Couldn't Die NEW WORK! & Kehler

What if death didn't come easily? What if your family didn't know how to let you go?

In this one-woman show, acclaimed storyteller/playwright Leigh-Anne Kehler (FemMennonite ★★★★, Die! Shakespeare! Die! ★★★★ - CBC) tells the tale of her father's unique palliative journey.

The show toured hospitals in the Toronto area and was invited to the National Arts Centre. Since then, Kehler has experienced her own brush with death.

There will be comedy (her father was often funny), blended with bittersweet reality.

A Mystery At Murder Manor NEW WORK! By Chris Gibbs

Chris Gibbs returns with a brand new adventure featuring the brilliant Victorian detective Antoine Feval and his not quite so clever assistant, Barnaby Gibbs.

Reviews of past Not Quite Sherlock shows:

★★★★★ "Hilarious... his distinctive dry humour and deadpan delivery is limitless." - Winnipeg Free Press

"Clueless, guileless and absolutely priceless." - Edmonton Journal

★★★★★ "Gibbs is a top-level performer, seamlessly switching from smart wordplay to snappy ad libs. This is one sequel that works." - CBC

We all sometimes feel exposed, whether that's as a fraud or a pretender.

The performers of the award-winning Neurohilarity show, Danielle Kayahara (Laugh Out Loud CBC), Carole Cunningham (Yuk Yuks, The Debaters), Adam Schwartz (Winnipeg Fringe) and Rollin Penner (Yuk Yuks, CBC, Rumors, Winnipeg Comedy Festival), apply a comedic spin to the experiences that make us feel insecure, stripping away the emotional weight with nittygritty jokes and stories that will have you laughing uproariously. Berlin Waltz Written & Performed by Devon More

Fiji

Achtung, baby! The Cold War is hot again.

Two-time CBC Critics' Pick and repeat Jenny Award winner Devon More (Flute Loops, Hits like α Girl) returns with a rare and rhythmic portrait of Berlin. History and hijinks collide where East meets West in this "masterful blend of musical storytelling" (Plank Magazine).

Cycle all 100 miles of Berlin's infamous wall in her captivating cabaret. Fresh off her solo album release, Devon builds her hypnotic wall of sound with multi-instrumental live-looping.

Glitterbomb: A Sibling Bonding Story NEW WORK! By Rosalie Best

Sisters Joan and Millie have always been close. They decide to take a break from responsibilities one evening and try hallucinogens. When things don't go as planned and the two start to panic, their unreliable brother David unexpectedly comes to the rescue.

With nothing to do but talk all night, the three siblings find themselves reminiscing about their childhood and reflecting on their current lives. With their guards down, the siblings come together to heal childhood wounds and strengthen a bond weakened by the unexpected turns of life.

A Lesbian in the Kitchen NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Willow Rosenberg

Never Swim Alone By Daniel MacIvor

Whether you have a favourite spatula, bake once or twice a year, or live in constant fear of being told to "just fold it in", this one-woman show about family, joy, tradition (but make it gay), Judaism, comfort, home (but make it gayer*), love, chemistry and magic is for you!

*Who're we kidding, it's all gay!

SHOW CANCELLED

Two men enter a room. Two boys sit on a beach. They might be the same man, and they might have been the same boy, but it's important that you know they are not. Two men, mirror images, haunted and bound by the boys they once were, and one moment during an endless summer.

Daniel Maclvor's play is a game of one-upping, memory, nostalgia and petty rivalry that bristles with tension and then explodes. A story about the one who wins, and everyone - and everything that gets left behind.

Eleanor's Story: An American Girl in Hitler's Germany Written & Performed by Ingrid Garner

★★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press "Exceptional" - CBC ★★★★★ - Global News Canada

Telegraph's #1 Theatre Pick - Edinburgh Fringe

Based on Eleanor Ramrath Garner's best-selling memoir, this 16x internationally award-winning adaptation – performed by her granddaughter, Ingrid Garner - details Eleanor's youth as an American caught in Second World War Berlin.

Punctuated with humour and accompanied by cinematic sound and video, Garner embodies her ancestors in this coming-of-age odyssey, delivering an account of war that is more relevant than ever.

Best Friends Forever NEW WORK! By Kennedy Huckerby

Best Friends Forever follows the relationship between two best friends: Kaycee and Ally. Kaycee is going through a hard time in life and is struggling with her mental health. Because of this, the dynamics of Kaycee and Ally's friendship start to shift, even more so when Kaycee meets a new friend, Dee.

This brand new play explores themes of friendship, mental health, and the power in recognizing when someone - or something - is no longer good for you.

Thank you to my mentor and dramaturge, Cory Wojcik.

Control: A Psychological Magic Show NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Patrick Gregoire

Only 5% of your thoughts and actions are under your control, the rest is subconscious. Which begs the question: Are you in control of your subconscious? Or is it in control of you?

Control is a mind-bending mentalism show by Winnipeg's Patrick Gregoire (Mindreader and Supernatural) that explores the hidden powers of suggestion, influence and the subconscious mind. Watch as your thoughts are twisted, your choices are manipulated, and you're left questioning who's really in control.

Spoiler alert: your thoughts are not your own.

Adam Bailey: My Three Deaths NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Adam Bailey

Control NEW WORK! Written & Performed by Wayne James

A wonderful thing to have, a terrible thing to lose, be it a bladder, a life, a future. Speaking of which, who's in control? The King, the people, the little boy who calls out, "The King's got no clothes!" I know it's not me.

Why not join me at my venue and we'll see what the storyteller has to say about it?

Thanks for stopping by.

Stories I Won't Tell The Kids / Des histoires (pas) pour les enfants NEW WORKI Written & Performed by Rob Malo

Rob Malo, master storyteller, aka TiBert, ventures beyond his beloved family-friendly tales (TiBert le Voyageur $\star \star \star \star$ and TiBert is Back! $\star \star \star \star \star$) to deliver something raw, ridiculous and remarkable.

With humour, heart and a touch of the unexpected, he weaves real-life stories that will make you laugh, challenge your perceptions and leave you in awe.

This made-for-adults show pushes the boundaries of storytelling - join him for an unforgettable evening, in English or français.

Reviewing The Free Press 2 NEW WORK! By Benji Rothman

The Winnipeg Free Press has run amok, reviewing each and every Fringe show over the past two decades without consequence or recourse. Now, it's their turn... again.

In this refurbished work that debuted at last year's Winnipeg Fringe, Benji Rothman once again takes the Winnipeg Free Press to task. In this (mostly) new, (hopefully) hilarious 45-minute show, Rothman dives deep into their past and exposes their faulty journalism, imbalanced reporting and, of course, embarrassing typos.

2024 Rintoul Award recipient Kelsey Donald with Brian Drader of the Manitoba Association of Playwrights.

THE HARRY S. RINTOUL AWARD

The Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival has always been a welcoming and encouraging place for artists to share new work with audiences. Since 2002, the Manitoba Association of Playwrights (MAP), the centre for play development in our province, has presented an award for Best New Manitoba Play in the Winnipeg Fringe Festival in memory and honour of Harry Rintoul, a leading Manitoba playwright and founding Artistic Director of Theatre Projects Manitoba.

The award recipients are selected by a panel of theatre professionals. The winner receives a $750 prize, and an honourable mention receives $250.

In 2024 the award was presented by MAP Executive Director Brian Drader to Kelsey Donald for her play A Taste of Blood in the Mouth, with an honourable mention going to The Mailroom by JHG Creative.

If you'd like to support the Harry S. Rintoul Award, donations can be made through mbplays.ca, or can be sent to: Manitoba Association of Playwrights, 503-100 Arthur St., Winnipeg, MB R3B 1H3
