The Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival is proud to call Manitoba home. The Winnipeg Fringe is located on Treaty 1 territory, the lands of the Anishinaabeg, Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota and Dene peoples, and the National Homeland of the Red River Métis. We are thankful for the benefits sharing this land has afforded us, acknowledge the responsibilities of the Treaties, and embrace the opportunity to partner with Indigenous communities in the spirit of reconciliation and collaboration.

GREETINGS

Well, it's been a very long three years since our last event, but I am so excited to welcome back all our amazing Fringe fans to the 35th annual Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival.

We are so thankful for the incredible support of our funders, corporate partners and individual donors over the past two years. Thanks to their continued commitment to the Fringe, and some incredibly creative artists, we proudly presented two successful digital festivals for our community.

But here we are, July 2022, and I can't wait to see the Exchange District alive again with Fringers enjoying incredible music by a local band at Old Market Square or rushing to get in line to buy a ticket to see that exciting new play they've been hearing so much about. I'm so excited for all of our indoor companies who were hoping to perform in 2020 and have patiently been waiting to share their creations and stories with our incredible Fringe community.

I'd like to also thank all of our dedicated volunteers and staff members for their continued commitment to the festival. Without their generous spirit, talent and enthusiasm, the Fringe would not be the tremendous success it is today.

And to you, our dedicated Fringers who have embraced this wacky concept of an indie theatre festival, I want to thank you for joining us once again this summer and making the Winnipeg Fringe Festival your favourite time of the year.

Have a wonderful time Fringing and I'll see you in line.

Chuck McEwen

Executive Producer, Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival

Welcome back to the Winnipeg Fringe Festival. We are so thrilled to be able to return to live theatre this summer after two long hiatus years. And we salute all of our artists who embraced the digital medium to bring our audiences joy during isolation. The Fringe is an iconic event in the Winnipeg cultural scene, drawing artists, audiences and volunteers to the beloved Exchange District for an all-you-can-eat buffet of entertaining and impactful offerings.

We are a small but mighty city with one of the most culturally savvy audiences in the North American Fringe network. That's why artists vie for a spot in the Winnipeg Fringe Festival - it's because of our passionate audiences!

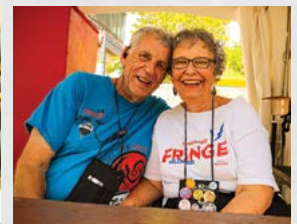

The buzz at Royal MTC is palpable right now as we welcome you all back to the incredible array of shows. Whether you are in Old Market Square catching a fabulous band on stage, or a busker on the corner; or you are scrambling to be first in line to buy tickets for one of the most popular shows at the festival, the energy is infectious. We can't help being caught up in the fun and frenzy that is the Fringe Festival.

A big salute to Chuck and Tori for all their hard work organizing the fest, and to our Fringe staff, the incredible volunteers, and of course the staff at MTC who support the festival in a myriad of ways. You are all brilliant!

Have a wonderful Fringe everyone!

THANK YOU TO OUR VOLUNTEERS!

A huge thanks to our dedicated volunteers who help make each year a success! Our volunteers play many roles on site and behind the scenes, from selling tickets, bartending and supervising Kids Fringe to keeping Old Market Square clean, answering questions and everything in between.

We are grateful for your enthusiasm and commitment in donating countless hours to ensure an amazing festival experience for patrons and performers alike. Your generosity and effort has put Winnipeg on the map as North America's second-largest Fringe Festival!

We'd like to extend a special thank you to our long-serving volunteers who go above and beyond, and have been with us for the past 25 years or more!

GREETINGS

Welcome to the Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival.

One of the biggest Fringe Festivals in North America returns in person this year. As always, it brings fans closer to the arts than ever. There is something for everyone, as the best performers from across Canada and beyond come together to showcase a diverse array of performances.

Throughout the last two years, Canada's artists have helped carry us through the pandemic. We are grateful for this perseverance and in return, we are giving back to artists by supporting the arts across the country, including this unique celebration.

As Minister of Canadian Heritage, I would like to thank the Royal Manitoba Theatre Centre as well as everyone else who helped bring this year's event to life.

Enjoy the shows!

The Honourable Pablo Rodriguez

Minister of Canadian Heritage, Government of Canada

It is my pleasure to welcome everyone to the 2022 Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival.

After a two-year hiatus due to COVID, the Fringe Festival is back in person. This festival hosts performing companies from around the world, showcasing comedy, drama, dance, music, improv and more, all presented on stages in and around Winnipeg's historic Exchange District.

The Fringe is that special place where many budding actors, directors and playwrights get their first chance to develop their artistic talents and skills in front of an audience. It is also a festival that welcomes experimental theatre from seasoned professionals, allowing Winnipeg audiences the chance to experience some very special performances. Everyone who has participated in the Fringe should be very proud because they have helped this festival become North America's second-largest Fringe and a model for changing the way we see theatre.

Congratulations to the performers, staff, volunteers and sponsors for all the work they do to make this outstanding event possible. And thank you to all the Fringers over the years who have supported this festival. I wish everyone a wonderful week and a very successful festival.

The Honourable Andrew Smith

Minister of Sport, Culture and Heritage, Government of Manitoba

Welcome to the 2022 Fringe Festival!

I am sure you are as excited as I am that the Fringe is once again including in-person events. You can be Fringey on your own couch with a virtual performance but nothing beats the energy and excitement of a live show. Winnipeg's summer festivals are highlights of the year for so many people and after the last couple of years, I know folks are keen to get together, grab a beverage, and exchange reviews in Old Market Square.

There are hundreds of volunteers who work to make the Winnipeg Fringe Festival one of the best in the world. I want to thank each and every one of you. I also want to recognize all of the hard-working and talented performers and those who work behind the scenes – in the venues and on the free stage – who devote themselves to their art. On behalf of the City of Winnipeg, I want to wish everyone – performers, audiences, organizers and even the reviewers – a great Fringe.

Warmly,

Mayor Brian Bowman

The City of Winnipeg

Like many of you, the Canadian Association of Fringe Festivals (CAFF) has been through a lot since 2020, but also, like many of you, we are returning stronger and more focused than ever before. We have offered more support to our member festivals over the last two years and we are ready to return to in-person festivals, as well as digital offerings.

CAFF has over 30 Fringe Festivals spanning Canada and the United States and we exist as an organization to unite, support, empower and strengthen our member festivals in order to cultivate and foster independent artistic exploration for artists and audiences across North America.

CAFF members return 100% of the ticket price to the artists and all festival companies are selected either by lottery or on a first-come/first-served basis.

We know many of you have missed being together in community and we are so looking forward to our festivals being able to offer that space again, to our artists and audiences alike. Some artists have been waiting since 2020 to perform and we are grateful to finally be able to give them that chance.

Please come and support them in your hometown and beyond if you can. Share the love of the shows you see with friends and family and support your local Fringe Festival, because we now all know that the world is definitely a darker place without them.

Thank you to all the artists who have shown great tenacity in this difficult time and to all the festival producers and teams who have hung in there to ensure their Fringe is still a platform for those artists. And THANK YOU to the audience who donated, supported, watched digital work and didn't forget us.

Happy Fringing,

Lucy Eveleigh

President, Canadian Association of Fringe Festivals

WE'RE BACK AND WE WANT YOU BACK TOO!

Hosting a festival in person is the best way to experience the electricity of live theatre while celebrating the spirit of community. In order to present accessible entertainment and cover the costs of running a festival, we need your support.

If you've contributed in the past, thank you, we invite you to come back. If you're thinking about donating for the first time, welcome! You'll enjoy special benefits while helping us return 100% of the box office revenue to the deserving performers.

HOW TO FRINGE

SELECT YOUR SHOWS > Use this guide or go online to read show descriptions. Performers are responsible for coming up with classifications to accurately represent their shows. We highly encourage patrons to carefully read the descriptions, age recommendations, warnings and accessibility options to find a show that's the best fit for you and your group.

FRINGE WITH RESPECT > Performers put in countless hours to put on a Fringe show, and it takes a lot of guts to share your art with an audience. Please respect how hard the performers work by following a few guidelines to ensure everyone has a positive experience: arrive early (latecomers aren't permitted), refrain from taking photos or video, and remember to turn off all devices!

BUDGET-FRIENDLY FRINGING > Get more out of your Fringe experience without breaking the bank. NEW "At the Door" discount - $10 tickets for everyone 25 and under. Many companies also provide special discounts for students, seniors and others. You can save even more by taking advantage of the 2 for $12 performances - highlighted in yellow in this program and listed on our website.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION > Local media outlets often publish reviews, but that isn't the only way to find out what's worth seeing. Word of mouth is a great way to hear rave reviews from fellow Fringers in Old Market Square, in the beer tent or online. Visit winnipegfringereviews.com to read the latest reviews from fellow patrons or submit your own.

Social media is also a great way to stay connected. Follow the official Winnipeg Fringe Facebook page, Twitter feed and Instagram account to get the latest news, share photos, participate in contests and hear what other patrons are recommending. Be sure to tag us and use the hashtag #WPGFRINGE.

SUPPORT THE ENTERTAINERS

We ask you to say thanks to the talented street performers and rocking local bands on the Bell MTS Outdoor Stage. Since access to Old Market Square is free, our performers rely on donations from generous audiences like you – so make sure to give back when they pass the hat at the end of their show!

PET POLICY

We love our furry four-legged friends, but we recommend you leave your pets at home. The festival isn't animal friendly (hot pavement, crowded atmosphere that may overwhelm your pet), and festival-goers may not be comfortable around pets. Our goal is to keep the festival safe and comfortable for all visitors. Please note that service dogs are allowed.

WASHROOMS AND ATMS

The festival provides public washrooms at Old Market Square on King Street beside the Red River College Paterson GlobalFoods Institute. We encourage Fringers to be conscientious and use festival facilities in lieu of surrounding businesses. Since our beverage pavilions and food vendors only accept cash, ATMs are available inside the Info Tent in the Red River College Courtyard, and at the beer gardens.

OUTDOOR COVID POLICY

- Patrons are not required to show proof of vaccination to attend shows at Old Market Square.

Minoosh Doo-Kapeeshiw stars Minoosh, a Métis kitty cat who goes camping and finds a friend in a funny place. It is a sweet and silent comedy narrated in Southern Michif language. Theatre magic, moving panoramas (a.k.a. Crankies), fishing and jigging! You don't need to know Michif to have fun at the show, but you might learn some before you leave.

Movie Musicals NEW WORK!

by Move The S Productions

Ever wonder what your favourite movie would look like as a musical? If The Terminator had a show-stopping ballad or Fight Club featured a dazzling, yet aggressive, tap break?

Movie Musicals adapts nine popular movies into hilarious parody songs. From The Wizard of Oz to Frozen, come see classics take the stage in ways you'll never expect. Packed with laughs and nostalgia, Movie Musicals is a wild and captivating show you don't want to miss!

Romeo & Juliet

by William Shakespeare

Being in love isn't easy. Especially when you're young. And especially when your parents are in an intergenerational blood feud that's turning the streets red.

Having last performed at the 2019 Fringe with their take on Twelfth Night, Indifferently Reformed now brings to the stage the classic Shakespearean comedy-drama Romeo & Juliet; a show full of humour, tragedy, sword fighting and, of course, romance.

Whether you're a diehard Shakespeare fan, or you've never read a Shakespeare play outside of English class, this show is for you!

Tango, to the Pointe NEW WORK!

Choreography by Alexander Richardson

Award-winning dance company PointeTango returns to the stage with a spectacular new show where ballet and tango coalesce. With powerful lifts and fiery footwork, audiences will be mesmerized by PointeTango's sultry duo as they pirouette, leap and bourrée across the stage with the passion of Argentine tango... on Pointe!

★★★★★ "Scott-Kafadar makes dancing on pointe shoes look effortless" – Saskatoon StarPhoenix

★★★★★ "Richardson's choreography is a joy to behold" – Check the Program

The Ultimate Actor's Nightmare NEW WORK!

by Club Soda Improv

A group of professional comedians attempt to invent a hilarious improvised play while at the mercy of a mischievous director who breaks all the rules.

Every night, a different actor transforms into a power-hungry head honcho with the ability to throw outrageous obstacles at their fellow performers. With the aid of live musical accompaniment, the members of Club Soda Improv try to tell a coherent story as they juggle bizarre challenges, mood swings and dramatic plot twists.

When everything goes wrong, you're in for an unforgettable time.

Audience participation is encouraged (though not required).

Kateryna and Havrylo are an elderly Ukrainian-Canadian couple who find themselves on unexpected fantasy adventures. What begins with ordinary rural Manitoban activities, like mushroom picking or ice fishing, quickly turns into otherworldly adventures. Using only their wits, they have to escape Mushroom Henchmen, a King Fish and the dreaded Baba Yaga.

Comedic, fun and adventurous, Kateryna and Havrylo is sure to delight audiences while honouring Ukrainian heritage so prominently ingrained in Manitoba's culture.

My Grandmother's Eyepatch NEW WORK!

Created & Performed by Julia Finger VanderVeen

What would people say at your memorial service?

Join Julia VanderVeen as she attempts to find the perfect way to honour her beloved Grandma Mamie.

"A willfully bizarre, comic, ironic, quietly hysterical succession of sketches, characters and aphorisms." - The Hartford Courant

Directed by Isaac Kessler

Co-conceived by Aitor Basauri of the world-renowned Clown company Spymonkey

BEST SOLO CLOWN - Frigid NYC

Something in the Water

Written and Performed by S.E. Grummett

"Enter into a wacky world of sea monsters in high heels and angry mobs with tiny pitchforks" - InDaily

When Grumms transforms into a squid monster (think Creature from the Black Lagoon meets The Muppets), they must hide their secret identity and disguise as a "normal human woman." Stunning video projections, puppetry and physical comedy combine in this absurd exploration of gender and growing up "normal."

Wait, So Do I Make Out With A Pan?

by Marie Kozyra

Following the year that provided her first sexual encounter and the recognition that she wasn't just attracted to men, Lea searched for answers online but came up empty-handed. So instead, she turned to a vlog camera to provide her thoughts and experiences, along with some unsolicited advice.

Returning (hopefully) revamped and (definitely) unhinged from the 2019 Winnipeg Fringe (★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press), Marie Kozyra continues to offer vulnerability and laughter as she explores queer identity, dating mishaps and awkward physical intimacy.

Grumplestock's

by Kevin Jesuino, Trish Lorenz and Jon Stewart

A dark fairy tale, performed by Grumplestock's magical creations as they tell their story: a journey to the divided city of Bowble. Each must decide between their friends and their reputation in a new and exciting society.

Bowble is fascinating but dangerous, especially for those as naïve as Grumplestock's creations. Will they find their place or lose themselves in their haste to gain importance?

A frenetic, expressionist reflection of the real world, Grumplestock's guides you through a landscape more familiar than anyone wants to admit.

King, Warrior, Magician, Lover NEW WORK!

Written and Performed by Matthew Evan Havens

Storyteller Matthew Evan Havens travels through a fantastical land of long-ago on a quest for manhood. Along the road, Matthew leaves his youthful dreams behind to confront the Warrior, the Magician, the Lover and the King who have always lived inside him. The tale of his journey has never before been told. Certainly not like this.

What challenges must Matthew overcome along the way? He will tell you. At the show. In the theatre.

"This story is so fanciful and realistic that it must be true"
- A bewildered yet satisfied audience member

Robert Will Show You the Door (tales of being fired) NEW WORK!

by Susan Jeremy

Canadian Premiere!

Susan Jeremy (P.S. 69, Teacher in the House) accidentally became a teacher after years of stand-up and being fired from almost every survival job. She was scarred for life when let go from Arthur Treacher's Fish and Chips. But, she persevered, only to be fired as a clown, an usher and a roller-skating cigarette girl.

Critics have said about her previous work:

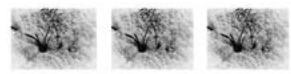

"Larger than life and twice as funny" - Globe and Mail

"Jeremy is an excellent storyteller" - Calgary Herald

"A comic powerhouse" - Winnipeg Sun

Scattered Seeds NEW WORK!

Written and Performed by Greg Evans

Scattered Seeds

Written and Performed by Greg Evans

After successful shows in California and Winnipeg, Greg Evans brings his one-man play to the Fringe. Scattered Seeds is a tale of perseverance as Greg chronicles his experiences growing up amidst the chaos of mental health and illness that led to his own issues with substance abuse.

Achingly honest, at times hilarious, this solo musical storytelling takes the audience on a journey from helplessness to redemption.

ASL Interpretation offered on July 13 and July 15.

Daddy's Boy

Written and Performed by Erik de Waal

Heroes and villains, birds of a feather, oil and water – father and son.

South African Erik de Waal explores the rocky, sometimes exuberant, relationship between two people who share the same blood and often very little else. Add a degenerative disease, some black humour and devastating honesty and you have Daddy's Boy – a tale that bares the vulnerability behind the mask.

★★★★★ "The South African storytelling machine returns with his most affecting tale yet" – CBC Manitoba

Not Quite Sherlock, The Further Adventures of Antoine Feval

Written and Performed by Chris Gibbs

As sidekick to the brilliant detective Antoine Feval, Barnaby Gibbs is as close to being a hero as a man made entirely of shortcomings can be. When the pair go up against an evil mastermind, his sinister Canadian henchman and their plan to plunge the world into chaos, Gibbs will have to become exactly the hero he always knew he wasn't.

A hit at the 2008 Winnipeg Fringe, Chris Gibbs returns in this sequel to Not Quite Sherlock.

Audition Deficit Disorder NEW WORK!

by Bret Nickels, Dakota Nickels and Steph Blanchette

This irreverent comedy is about the torment, anxiety and fear of auditions and casting directors; where seven different characters attempt to negotiate the audition process. The problem is, they all occupy the same body... and they all possess various forms of Audition Deficit Disorder. Have they all gone mad, or are they just madly hilarious?

Take a trip into the Audition Deficit Disorder Zone, to a place where it doesn't matter if the casting director doesn't like your personality... as there are several more to choose from.

Macabre Tales of Horror and Macabreness (kinda?) 10 Year HELLebration

by George McRobb, Alan MacKenzie and Audra Lesosky

BACK FROM THE DEAD, 2010's chillarious five-star monster smash was to be resurrected for its 10th terrifying anniversary, but if any remount was gonna be cursed by a two-year plague...

Like Frankenstein's monster, this revolting remount, stitched together from the original 2010 show and two shriekquels, pays terrifying tribute to EC Comics, schlocky gimmick-filled horror movies and live spook shows of old!

WARNING: the scares get up ghost and personal; even in the audience, you're not safe...

Underbelly NEW WORK!

Written and Performed by Nayana Fielkov

Underbelly is a surrealist comedy in which monsters, dismemberment, shower opera, inconceivable truths and a hot date may be just the recipe needed to shed the past and let it run down the drain.

Join this multi-award-winning physical comedian in her bathroom to untangle the age-old question of perception and reality in love and life.

Se'ed NEW WORK!

Written and Performed by Wayne James

Stories are the soil into which our imagination germinates and takes root, creating the world of tomorrow and the new stories yet to be told.

No story can rival that of a seed, but our imagination is no longer grounded in the living world. And the seeds of tomorrow are being programmed in laboratories isolated from the living world, owned by corporations.

Se'ed is the story of a farmer, living in an age of insanity.

Bushtits, Shih Tzus and Private Dicks: All's Fur in Love and Noir

Written and Performed by Melissa Dorsey and Trevor Matheson

When Les buys an iconic fedora worn by famed 1940s movie detective Dana Andrews, the lines between reality and film noir blur as he investigates a series of suspicious pet deaths.

Two actors and 13 crazy characters take you through a stylistic fantasy with bust-a-kneecap laughs.

★★★★ 1/2 "...a slapstick homage to film noir that was unequivocally the funniest piece of theatre I have seen all year... this is a quirky, genuinely fun show that should not be missed!"

Generic Male: Just What We Need, Another Show About Men NEW WORK!

by Ashley Jones and Darren Stevenson

"Just what we need, another show about men" - Raves No One

Explosive, athletic, visceral physical theatre ruined by a tragic lack of understanding.

Award-winning PUSH Physical Theatre, called "a perfect metaphor-in-motion" by CITY Newspaper and "a rare treat" by NY Theatre Guide, creates a masculinity satire by two well-meaning fools - arguing, dancing, desperately clinging to the status quo.

Are we just watching a couple of petty idiots or is this the most insightful piece of theatre of the 21st century? ... No.

Murmurs of Earth NEW WORK!

by Gilles Messier

In 1977, NASA launched a pair of probes named Voyager to explore the outer solar system. Aboard each was a gold-plated phonograph record containing images, sounds and music from planet Earth – a time capsule of humanity to last a billion years.

Murmurs of Earth tells the incredible true story of the Voyager Golden Records – the people who created them, how their contents were chosen, and what these objects say about us and our place in the cosmos.

A Thousand Words

Written by Chris Parsons and C. Neil Parsons

In 1969, Chris Parsons served as a combat photographer in Vietnam. Combining his pictures with original music and dance, trombonist C. Neil Parsons (Fruit Flies Like a Banana) recounts tales of danger, resilience, and the thousand natural shocks that flesh is heir to.

“It’s unlikely anyone will forget the tragic beauty of this very personal story of one man that resonates with the loss of thousands.” – Plays With John & Wendy

Whatever Happens After? NEW WORK!

by Sarah Flynn

There are some things in life only your family understands. First, there’s mom’s midlife crisis: a condo, a pet ferret and soy milk? Probably brought on by the looming second divorce. Or maybe it’s the stress of grandma’s Alzheimer’s. Plus Quinn is leaving soon. Meaning poor Ash has to deal with all this family stuff alone.

Join siblings Quinn and Ash in the park around the corner. They’ll go from laughing to bickering in seconds; and you’ll be brought to tears in all the best and worst ways possible.

The Truth (tm) NEW WORK!

Written and Performed by Adam Bailey

Adam Bailey has toured the Fringe telling stories where the Truth is stranger than fiction: Franz Ferdinand Must Die (★★★★ - CBC, Winnipeg Free Press), The Life Henri (★★★★★ - VUE Weekly, Edmonton). But what does it mean to tell the Truth in an era when everyone has their own facts?

Adam examines this question with heartfelt humour and self-deprecation. A follow-up to the work he did in their coming out bioplay Adam Bailey is on Fire (★★★★ 1/2 - Edmonton Sun) and the seminal text Plato's Republic (★★★★ - Goodreads).

BY Cathy Celesia, Sybil Rosen, Jason Katims and Mary Miller

"Do something that frightens you at least once a year. Builds character. Strengthens moral fibre. You ought to try it sometime."

The Horrible Friends: Free Beer in The Multiverse of Flatness NEW WORK!

by The Horrible Friends

Join the Horrible Friends on their quest to restore carbonation to beers that have gone flat across the multiverse...

Look, we're not going to spend too long justifying the title of the show. It's improv. It's comedy. There are actual free beers! Also, we have to write these descriptions in March. How was Doctor Strange? It must have been great! Right? RIGHT??? Anyway, here are some quotes from reviews of our previous shows.

Improv: Taste The Accordion NEW WORK!

by ImproVision

Can improv be performed without an accordion (also known as "the old stomach Steinway" and "protector of thy virginity")? ImproVision is going to find out!

The improvisers who have pushed the envelope with clothespins, mousetraps, puppets and more take perhaps their greatest risk: performing short-form improv based on your suggestions WITHOUT the aid of accordions! Witness the carnage.

★★★★ "...can take even the most bland audience suggestions and spin gold" - Winnipeg Free Press

The Disney Delusion NEW WORK!

Written and Performed by Leif Oleson-Cormack

Award-winning comedian Leif Oleson-Cormack pushes confessional comedy to its limits in this show about a methodically moronic plan to double-down on unrequited love through a disastrous trip to Disneyland.

Featuring criminal acts, surgically-altered sugar daddies, Sinatra impersonators and a cynically-charged "coming out", this (unfortunately) true story is not to be missed.

"His rawness and willingness to reveal things very few people would ever admit out loud...makes this the best thing I've seen so far at the Fringe." - Edmonton Journal

The Cause
by Cuinn Joseph, Connor Joseph, Jacob Herd and Monique Gauthier

The Harry S. Rintoul Award winner for Best New Manitoba Play is back!

The Cause is a farce that follows five agents working for a rebellious organization plotting the assassination of a major political figure. Although each agent brings a unique set of skills to "The Cause," they all share one important secret: each one is deep undercover, working for a different foreign interest to dismantle "The Cause" from within. As the mission draws nearer, the agents attempt to execute their plan without revealing their true intentions to one another.

CIVILIZED NEW WORK!
by Keir Cutler

Based on actual reports, writings and speeches, Métis actor John D. Huston (SHYLOCK, Underneath the Lintel, two Sherlock Holmes adventures, A Christmas Carol) and writer Keir Cutler (Teaching Shakespeare) resurrect a government bureaucrat who attempts to justify the unjustifiable: Sir Wilfrid Laurier's vision for Canada's Natives and the ongoing repercussions.

A compelling look at what is "civilized."

THE HARRY S. RINTOUL MEMORIAL AWARD

The Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival has always been a welcoming and encouraging place for artists to share new work with audiences. Since 2002, the Manitoba Association of Playwrights (MAP), the centre for play development in our province, has presented an award for Best New Manitoba Play at the Winnipeg Fringe in memory and honour of Harry Rintoul, a leading Manitoba playwright and founding Artistic Director of Theatre Projects Manitoba.

The award recipient is selected by a panel of theatre professionals during the festival and this year, with the support of the Manitoba Arts Council, there will be two awards: the winner will be presented with a $750 prize and an honorable mention will receive $250.

In 2019, the last year of the Fringe prior to the pandemic, the award was presented by Brian Drader to Cuinn Joseph, Conner Joseph and Jacob Herd for The Cause.

If you'd like to support the Harry S. Rintoul Award, donations can be made through mbplays.ca, or can be sent to: Manitoba Association of Playwrights, 503-100 Arthur St., Winnipeg, MB R3B 1H3
