ABOUT OTTO & ASTRID

They are super musicians and unparalleled performers of stellar proportions - gigantic and explosive. Tragically orphaned as children, the brother and sister duo ran away from their small rural hometown and ordinary childhood, to Berlin, and knew instantly they had found a place among the counterculture, a home in a squat - and the solace and saviour of the rock 'n' roll music.

Die Roten Punkte was soon born, and the best band in the world was bestowed upon the world. The band experienced a lightening speed rise to stardom - and have been touring ever since, travelling the globe non-stop with their smash hit records, performing sold out concerts to seas of fans, performing alongside some of the rock music's biggest names, all the while maintaining the unrefuted title as the best band in the world.

The raw, electrical power the band brings to their concerts is kinetic. The siblings supreme themselves are like Chalk and Cheese- they clash. But the sparks that fly when this brother and sister take the stage, they set the audience alight.
